THE LARGE ONE HUNDRED AND THREE, YONGE STREET

The rage for the gold of Australia is past, And men gather wisdom and show it at last For now it: y believe what they've often been told. That our own layored Canada is the country for Gold.

While here we are blessed with a generous soil, The man may have gold who is willing to toll, And vain were his search for a happier shore, While blessings so numerous encircle his door.

Strange indeed would it be, if a land like our own, Where our roses, though latost, are sweetest when blown Though our winters are long, and sometimes severe, But lead us to summers delightfully clear, Should be less attractive, because of its cold, Than lands tuil of vices—though teening with gold.

But prosperous as Canada niways hath been, This year is the lest that the ever hath seen, And now she is wreathing a lauret to wear, That nations may one day be auxious to share.

Her prosperous condition will appear very plain, When her tarmers get a dollar and a quarter for grain, While all their productions so readily sell, At prices which now pay them equally well

To many, it doubtless may soom very queer, Why Dry Goods are cheap and Provisions so dear, it is true, notwithstanding, which our patrons may see, By calling on Yonge Street "One Hundred and Three"

While many must know, an advance very great, Has been made in the value of weellens of late, Yet our fisance is and blankets will quickly appear, Quite as low as the prices we offered has year

Our Bonnets and Cloaks have been tastefully made, With a prospect of greatly increasing our trade, And our Shawls and our Furs will at once please the eye And induce even the most fastidious to buy

Our manner of business is extensively known, The lowest price asked, with the article shown, And such, we determine, shall continue to be, The unceasing practice at ONE HUNDRED AND THREE.
