REVIEWS.

READING FOR A MONTH PREPARATORY TO CONFIRMATION, compiled from the works of Writers of the Early and of the English Church. By the Author of Gertrude, A First History of Greece, &c. Small 8vo. pp. 332. New York: D. Appleton & Co. Toronto: A. H. Armour & Co.

The Author, Rev. Mr. Sowell, is an elegant writer; and there is much in the book that is valuable; but there is also much that we esteem highly erroneous, such as baptismal regeneration, which is prominently and plainly taught. The first day's reading on "Baptism and Confirmation" would of itself, prevent us from recommending it even to a Protestant Episcopalian.

GENESIS AND GEOLOGY; or an Investigation into the I reconciliation of the Modern Doctrines of Geology, with the Declarations of Scripture. By Daniel Crofton, B. A. With an Introduction by Edward Hitchcock, D. D., F. L. S. 100 pp. Price 2s. 6d. Boston: Phillips, Sampson & Co. Toronto: A. H. Armour & Co.

This is a little book, but a very able one on the subject on which it treats. Both are wrong. The Book of Nature is given to us by God, and to be read as well as the Book of Revelation; both have the same Author, and when carefully examined will be found to speak in perfect harmony. Facts in science cannot be denied with success; and when we obtain such facts, we shall find that they do not contradict one word of the Bible, rightly understood. The recommendation of Dr. Hitchcock is of itself sufficient; and because of his estimation of the work, he advised the republication of it in America, that it might be "within reach of American Christians." He says, "I have met with no examination of the connection between 'Geology
