

THE BOOT AND SHOE TRADE.

Ames, Millard & Co.
Hunter, Duffy & Johnson.

Linton & Cooper.
Smith & Cochrane,
Smith & Edmiston.

BUSINESS is still slack, manufacturers being principally engaged in getting up coarse goods for the fall and winter trade. Prices are firm, with rather an upward tendency, in view of the high price of stock, and although we do not alter our list price this week, the probability is that future quotations for heavy goods will be higher than they are at present.

REMARKS.

CATTLE—The Beef Cattle at market this week were generally of good quality, with more small stock among them than there has been of late. The demand was active and the sales quick. Western steers were sold at last week's quotations, but small Northern Cows, Heifers and Steers did not sell so high.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—The sheep that were sold early went at 1/2 to 3/4 per lb less than what was received by those who held their stock until later, which is seldom the case. If there is a large number at market you must generally sell early to insure a fair price. With the light supply at Medford, the butchers could not obtain their compliment. The quality generally is good.
