

"COME WITH US, AND WE WILL DO THEE GOOD."

Hints and Helps.

Convention Offering to-day. Let every one give each month.

Convention Committee meet in Church Parlor Monday evening, at 8 o'clock.

The B. Y. P. U. Barlor Concert was a decided success in every way. The North Church does well whatever it undertakes.

A friend in St. John, N. B., to whom OUR CALENDAR was sent recently wrote—"Your Calendar is very neat and shows enterprise."

The Conference Meeting, Sept. 30, was very largely attended. It was a blessed service, and speaks well for the work this winter. Are you praying for a revival?

Are you a regular contributor to the current expenses of this church and the Convention Fund. If not, why not? Here is something from "The Holland Reminder," Philadelphia:—"One of our little boys recently visited a up-town church, and on coming out, said to his mother—"Do you remember the lady who sat beside us with the seal skin coat on? Well, I counted twelve beautiful roses in her bosom, and she only put one cent on the collection plate."

Bloomfield Mission Note.—Our young brother, Harry Kempton, is spending a week with us, and will preach this Sunday evening, at Bloomfield Street. To encourage him a large number of his friends should attend. They should also take some extra change with them. A large collection is desired. It will be put to good use by our brother.
