

INDEX

TO THE

OTTAWA NATURALIST, VOL. XVII, 1903-4.

|                                            | PAGE                           |                                      | PAGE |
|--------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------------------------|------|
| Anniversary, Celebration of 25th           | 207                            | Entomological Society of Ontario,    |      |
| Antennariæ, Some Canadian                  | 201                            | Report of meeting                    | 112  |
| Attwood, A. E., Summer course              |                                | Evans, A. W., Yukon Hepaticæ         | 13   |
| at Norway Beach                            | 113                            | Excursion, General, to Chelsea       | 95   |
| Beetles of an Oregon Beach                 | 49                             | Experimental Farm, Nesting of        |      |
| Bird Study                                 | 97                             | birds at                             | 24   |
| Book Notices                               | 128, 142                       | Fletcher, James, Nature Study        | 45   |
| Botanical Branch, Report of meet-          |                                | Notes on Macrae's Coral-root         | 76   |
| ings                                       | 38, 58, 93, 178, 180, 193, 213 | Gibson, Arthur, A night's collect-   |      |
| Botanical Section, Report of               | 71                             | ing of moths at Meech Lake           | 204  |
| Burman, Rev. Wm. A., Moose                 |                                | Hunting for Caterpillars             | 77   |
| with Elk Antlers                           | 57                             | Greene, Edw. L., Some Cana-          |      |
| Campbell, D. A., The Need of               |                                | dian Antennariæ                      | 201  |
| Nature Study                               | 61                             | Grosbeak, Pine                       | 163  |
| Cardioceras , Description of a spe- |                                | Grouse, Canadian ruffed              | 163  |
| cies of                                    | 65                             | Guillet, Cephas, Curiosity of        |      |
| Caterpillars, Hunting for                  | 77                             | Hummingbird in captivity             | 55   |
| Chickadee, Hudsonian, Notes on             |                                | Hawk, A red-shouldered, in cap-      |      |
| nesting habits of                          | 92                             | tivity                               | 53   |
| Corallorhiza striata , Lindl.       | 76                             | Hay, G. U., It is the spirit which   |      |
| Council, Report of                         | 7                              | gives Nature Study effect            | 145  |
| Creeper, Brown, Notes on nest-             |                                | Hedley, R. T., A red-shouldered      |      |
| ing habits of                              | 92                             | hawk in captivity                    | 53   |
| Crows, My Pet                              | 101                            | Helicigona arbustorum in New- |      |
| Dent, W. A., Bird Study                    | 97                             | foundland                            | 192  |
| DeWolfe, Loran A., Mineralogy              |                                | Hepaticæ, Yukon                      | 13   |
| and Geology in Schools                     | 147                            | Herring Gull's Eggs                  | 112  |
| Dowling, D. B., How Peat is                |                                | Holm, Theo., Biological Notes        |      |
| manufactured into fuel                     | 175                            | on Canadian species of Viola  | 149  |
| Dryptosaurus incrassatus , The      |                                | Hotson, J. W., Nature Study and      |      |
| lower jaw of                               | 133                            | rural education                      | 221  |
| Eagles and Ospreys, Our                    | 186                            | Hummingbird, Curiosity of            | 55   |
| Entomological Branch, Reports              |                                | Hunting for Caterpillars             | 77   |
| of meetings                                | 36, 216                        | Halkett, A., Note on Hagenius |      |
| Entomological Branch, Report of,           |                                | brevistylus                   | 56   |
| for 1902                                   | 107                            | Note on Herring Gulls                | 112  |
|                                            |                                | Hagenius brevistylus , Selys. | 56   |