

ministry. Nor ought we to forget those wise, learned, and pious men, whom our governors may from time to time, think fit to raise to the most exalted stations among the clergy, and to invest with a dignity and authority, which, though no part of their ministerial office, is capable of being improved to great advantage. It is devoutly to be wished that they may use their great influence and power to exclude those that are unworthy from that important trust; and that they may preside over the doctrine and behaviour of those committed to their care, in such a manner as may render both most edifying to those who attend their instruction. By these pious and zealous endeavours an establishment will flourish, and separate interests decrease." What follows is deserving of the grave consideration of such incendiary prints as the Examiner and Globe, and combinations similar to the "Anti-Clergy Reserves Association."

"BUT WHAT FOLLY AND INIQUITY WERE IT SO MUCH AS SECRETLY TO WISH, THAT ONE LIMB MIGHT GROW BY THE DISTEMPOR OF THE BODY, OR ONE COAST BE ENRICHED BY THE WRECK OF THE PUBLIC NAVY!"

Surely "Bishop" Leslie, and Dr. Burns have reason to pause, and question the rectitude of their anti-endowment movements, with the foregoing authority, which they can neither disclaim nor undervalue—starting them full in the face! But alas! party, now-a-days, has usurped the place of principle—and modern dissent, at once shallow and self-seeking, repudiates the thoughtful sobriety, so frequently characteristic of old nonconformity!

THE DAILY COLONIST.

On Saturday Mr. Scobie issued the first number of a new daily paper, to be published under the above title. It is a neatly printed, and well-arranged little sheet, and contains a respectable amount of matter, original, as well as selected.

VOCAL SACRED MUSIC SOCIETY.

The open Meeting of this Society takes place this evening, in the St. Lawrence Hall, circumstances having prevented its being held yesterday, as announced in our last.

The Rev. E. Patterson requests that all letters and papers for him may, in future, be addressed to Stratford, C. W.

ADDRESS

Of the Congregations of the Mission of Wolfe Island, to the Rev. Ephraim Patterson.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—As the Great Head of the Church has seen fit in the order of his providence, to direct your removal from this Mission, to labour in another part of his vineyard, we should be wanting in gratitude were we to let you go without giving expression to our feelings on the occasion.

You have laboured amongst us under circumstances peculiarly unpleasant and disagreeable, and such as were calculated to discourage and dishearten you; but assured your christian forbearance and humility will not soon be forgotten by us.

Your friendly visits to our respective families have greatly endeared you to us, and we hoped to enjoy such kind familiarity for many years to come.

Above all, your faithful expositions of God's Holy Word, fearlessly delivered, and rightly divided, have been such as we trust will tell upon our future conduct in bringing forth fruit to the glory of our Heavenly Father. Your last sermon, even your "Message from God to us," we will endeavour to receive and treasure up as your parting advice and legacy.

Accept our best wishes and prayers for your prosperity both in body and soul, and may your labours be more abundantly blest in the place whereto the Lord has appointed you.

Signed, for the congregations,
HENRY PERCEVAL, Warden of Trinity Church,
JOHN F. CHARLES, Wolfe Island.
Rev. EPHRAIM PATTERSON,
Kingston.

REPLY.

Kingston, Nov. 15, 1851.

MY DEAR CHRISTIAN BRETHREN,

Permit me to thank you heartily for the very kind manner in which you are pleased to address me on my departure to another portion of the Lord's vineyard.

You will agree with me when I say, that in the discharge of his sacred duties, a minister of Christ should be discouraged by no obstacle which may, by Divine aid, be overcome. If, however, the circumstances under which it was my lot to labour amongst you were "unpleasant" and "disheartening," and if the difficulties of my position were, to any extent, overcome, I must here express my deep conviction that the difficulties was owing, in no small degree, to the firm support and undissembled sympathy of many whom I hold in the highest esteem, and whom I shall always remember with gratitude. Amongst you are to be found steady advocates of the truths committed to the Church's keeping by her Divine Founder.

Nor shall I readily forget the friendly intercourse which has for some time existed between us, marked as it invariably was, on your part, by the greatest kindness.

Strongly would it argue an insensibility to the infirmities and failings of man's fallen nature, were a Christian Minister to presume to claim for himself the praise of having perfectly fulfilled his duties in the responsible relation in which he stands to his people. If then, through the humble instrumentality of my ministrations any habitual scoffer at religion has been led to pause in his career, and to believe that, after all, religion is a reality; if any careless professor has been awakened to a true sense of his position as an immortal being; or if you, my brethren, have been encouraged to renewed earnestness in the great contest of the Christian life, and to fresh exertions in your endeavours to "bring forth fruit unto holiness," do you ascribe all the praise to Almighty God, and ever bear in mind the words of his inspired servant, "Neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase;" and, "We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God and not of us."

Most cordially do I reciprocate your wishes and prayers for my prosperity, temporal and spiritual. That you all may enjoy, in abundance, the blessings of God's Providence in this life, and when the term of your probation here is ended, that you may calmly resign your spirits into the hands of our common Saviour, with an assured hope of a joyful resurrection at the last great day, is the heartfelt wish and prayer of

Yours affectionately in the Lord,
E. PATTERSON.

ARRIVAL OF THE "CAMBRIA."

The British mail steamship Cambria, Captain Shannon, arrived at Boston at three o'clock on Friday morning. The Cambria left Liverpool on Saturday, the 1st inst.

The steamship Africa had been closely examined, and the damage found to be confined to her forefoot and false keel. The cargo was entirely free from injury. She was to sail on the 8th November.

The news from the continent of Europe generally is quite unimportant.

The public mind in France was in a state of excitement, it having been stated by the editor of the Constitutionnel, a personal friend of Louis Bonaparte, that the latter intended to propose the abrogation of the law on the 31st of May, and to appeal to the country for the Presidential election.

The Prince de Joinville had recommended the withdrawal of his name as a candidate for the Presidency of the French republic. This he is said to have done from a fear that his private interests might be the occasion of discord amongst "the party of order," at a time when it is necessary for that party to be united, if they are to defeat Louis Napoleon in his last move.

The correspondent of the London Globe is still confident that there would be a compromise between the President and a Majority of members of the Assembly. Business was, however, gloomy, and all orders received by the manufacturers had been suspended.

The Semaphore of Marseilles, published a letter dated Rabat, in Morocco, the 11th ult., announcing that the French consul had received orders to embark all the French residents, as the French fleet was about to bombard the town of Salee, as a reprisal against the Emperor of Morocco for refusing compensation for pillage of a French merchant vessel, wrecked on the coast.

A statue of William the Conqueror was inaugurated at Palaise, (his birth place,) on Sunday, the 26th ult., in presence of a vast crowd, amongst whom was M. Guizot, who made a speech.

There appears to be a settled calmness in Austria—the only event of importance being the dismissal of Count Thum, Governor of Styria. The grain crops in Austria are said to have turned out very indifferent this year. Prices were rising in all the markets. A disease like the potato rot had attacked the grapes. The government of Austria is said to have received a confidential despatch from President Napoleon, giving a very satisfactory explanation relative to the change in the French cabinet.

Further Extracts from our English Files.

The calendars of the Circuit Courts of Justiciary in Scotland, with scarcely an exception, are very much lighter than for some time past, not only in the number of Crimes, but also in the proportion of the more serious charges. This, coupled with the general decrease of pauperism, is a satisfactory sign of the condition of the country.

Lady Griselda Tekell, daughter of Charles, third Earl of Stanhope, and Lady Hester Pitt, eldest daughter of William, first Earl of Chatham, died at Bagshot on the 18th ult., in her 73rd year. In 1800 she married John Tekell, Esq. Her Ladyship was, therefore, last surviving daughter of the celebrated Earl of Stanhope.

A DRUIDICAL REMAIN.—A Druidical monument, consisting of the stone on which human victims were offered up by the Gauls, has just been discovered near the forest of Luchaux. It is about 7 feet long, 4½ feet wide and foot and a half thick. The hollow destined to receive the blood is about 9 inches deep and 18 in superficial extent. The stone has been raised without any fracture.—Galvani.

ASSYRIAN DISCOVERIES.—We are glad to hear that the Lords of the Treasury have at length consented to advance to Colonel Rawlinson the sum of £1,500, to continue his explorations and excavations in Assyria. Colonel Rawlinson is to proceed immediately to Bagdad, where he is the resident of the East India Company, and from thence he will go to any quarter where his directions may be needed, and where the best promises of future discoveries may be held out. He will also keep open the works already commenced but he is to act entirely independently of Mr. Layard.

The Essex Standard, an active promoter of a projected testimonial to Mr. Gorham, says:—"From a list privately circulated of contributions for the Bramford Speke Fund, for defraying the expenses incurred by the Rev. Mr. Gorham in the celebrated cause, Gorham v. Exeter, we learn that the total expenses of the contest were £3,604 7s. 8d., and the total contributions £3,857 9s. 10d., leaving a balance in the Treasurers' hands of £253 2s. 2d., which they have paid over to the private account of Mr. Gorham."

DISCOVERIES OF SILVER IN THE CAUCASUS.—The Russians have discovered four important veins of silver ore in the Caucasus—one in the defile of Sadon, another in that of Ordona, a third in that of Degorsk, and the fourth near Paltchick. The veins are rich in the yield of silver. The working of them has already been commenced by order of the Emperor.

REGIMENTS FOR FOREIGN SERVICE.—The following regiments will take place in the spring of 1852:—Royals, 2nd battalion, Cork, to Nova Scotia; 40th Regiment, Cork, to Malta; 85th Regiment, Portsmouth, to Malta; 57th Regiment, Cork, to Gibraltar; 76th Regiment, Malta, to Nova Scotia; 24th Regiment, Gibraltar, to Canada; 42nd Regiment, Nova Scotia, Home; 97th Regiment, Nova Scotia, Home; Rifle Brigade, 2nd battalion, Canada, Home; 31st Regiment, Cork, to Gibraltar.

OFFICE OF ORDINANCE.—Royal Regiment of Artillery.—Brevet-Major C. Dickson to be Captain vice Forbes, deceased; First Lieutenant P. W. Phillips to be Second Chaplain vice Dickson; Second Lieutenant C. D. Fisher to be First-Lieut. vice Phillips.

CHANGE OF THE SEASONS!

AND NEW, CHEAP AND SEASONABLE

DRY GOODS.

The showers of the Spring are but shed o'er the land,
The earth but unfettered from Winter's grim hand;
Its breezes but felt, and its verdure but seen,
When it passes away with the Springs that have been,
Then Summer comes on with its sweet smelling flowers,
Its rich verdant fields, and its ivy-clad bowers:
Yet strange, when it yields us the greatest delight,
It mocks at our gazing, and fades from our sight,
Then Autumn succeeds, with its corn and its grain,
Its fine mellow fruit, and its rich yellow plain;
But like Spring time and Summer, how short is its stay,
It drops us the year leaf and passes away.
Then Winter draws nigh, and the leaves disappear,
And every green spot grows withered and drear;
And the breezes of evening are heavy and chill,
And the snow spreads its mantle of fleece o'er the hill;
Unlike Spring time or Summer, or Autumn it stays,
Through many bleak nights and cold frosty days,
Till we tire of its visit, and wish him away,
And long for the balmy breezes of May.
McDONALD, on Yonge Street, One Hundred and Three,
Has a Stock which he wishes the Public to see:
Well suited in fabric for cold Winter's trade,
And embracing the latest designs that are made:
There are Flannels and Blankets, in goodly supply,
Which feel thick to the hand and look well to the eye;
There are hundreds of Shawls, some styles very rare,
The fine, heavy, long, and magnificent square;
There are Bro'd Cloths, and Doekins, and Cassimeres too,
And Lustrous, and Cobourgs, in every fine hue;
And a fine stock of Furs, which, at some recent day,
Were trapped on the banks of the famed Hudson Bay.
There are fine Cloaks and Bonnets, and many things more,
That McDONALD keeps always on hand at his Store;
He would not the rights of another invade,
While he seeks for a healthy extension of trade:
But if fairness will answer, and bargains repay,
Then call at his Warehouse at some early day;
He asks but a call, 'tis a modest request,
And a glance at his prices will tell all the rest.

THE object of this Advertisement is in part to do away with an erroneous opinion which has long prevailed, viz.—that nothing choice or tasteful can be had in the Dry Goods department on an examination of the Subscribers Stock will sufficiently refute that notion, while it comprises all the articles in general use in the Trade. The following will be found especially worthy of notice:—DRESS GOODS, in Lustrous, Cobourgs, Silk Mixtures, Cashmeres, De Lanes, &c., from 1s. upwards. SHAWLS—a good large stock of British and American Manufactures; a good supply from the celebrated BAY STATE MILLS, bought at jobs and offered low. BLANKETS.—A good supply bought at Saxony, Lancashire, and Canadian, from 1s. 1d. upwards.

A large Stock of

SILK VELVETS in black and choice colours; also, an assortment of FULPET VELVETS, on which article a liberal discount will be made, if wanted for Church purposes. Attention is directed to the stock of

STONE MARTIN FURS.

Long Flat Boas commencing at $12. Gutta Percha sewing Thread; Chinese Tapes, peculiar for not twisting in washing; Chest Comforters, a good safeguard for persons much exposed to the weather.

N. B.—The attention of the Trade is solicited to a large Stock of 9-8th and 5-4th Prints, in Lilac and Madders Cobourgs, warranted fast, commencing at 6d. per yd.; also, to a Lot of cheap Stuff Goods; 70 or 80 dozen Bonnet Shapes, commencing at 2s. 3d. per dozen nett, and every class of Goods offered to the Trade on the same favourable terms.

To the Free and Independent Electors of the City of Toronto.

GENTLEMEN,—I beg leave to announce to you, that it is again my intention to offer myself as a Candidate for your Suffrages at the approaching General election.

From the period when, in 1844, without solicitation on my part I was put in nomination and returned as one of the Representatives of this City, I have endeavoured to discharge the duties devolving upon me to the best of my ability, regardless of all personal consequences, and if I know myself to my private interests.

I have now enjoyed this distinguished honour for eight years, and if in that capacity I have faithfully and zealously discharged my duty, I trust I may, without presumption, look for a continuance of that confidence and support, which is the only reward a public man has a right to expect at the hands of his constituents, if he seeks their good and not his own.

I ask no other.
I have always striven to promote the interests of this City and of our Common Country, and whilst doing so, though sometimes on the weak side and sometimes on the strong side, I trust that your suffrages will show that in your opinion I have at least endeavoured to be on the right side.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
WM. H. BOULTON.

TO ALEXANDER MACKENZIE CLARK, ESQ.

SIR,—The events of the last four years render it necessary that more care should be taken in the selection of a Member of Parliament, than has hitherto been the case.

The many instances of pledges broken, and promises unfulfilled, show the necessity of selecting a person of firmness, one not likely to be led astray by offers of power or emolument, and who considering himself the representative of the whole constituency and not of his own supporters only, will do justice to all without regard to party, and may safely be sent to Parliament untrammelled by pledges.

He should also, we think, be a man well acquainted with business, and willing and able to devote himself to the public service.

Believing you to be possessed of these and the other requisite qualities in an eminent degree, we beg to call upon you to offer yourself as a candidate for the First Riding of York at the approaching election.

I accept your call gentlemen—and if returned by you to Parliament, I shall endeavour to the best of my ability to justify the confidence you would repose in me.

Independent in my circumstances—having earned a competency in an honourable profession—power and emolument offer no temptation to me, and being unencumbered by business of any kind, I should be able to devote my whole time to the service of the public.

I have the honor to be Gentlemen,
