

Private Members' Public Bills

that we proceed to the introduction and first reading of these bills today so that each may be scrutinized between now and its calling for second reading, in order to allow the Chair to consider whether or not there are defects in the bills with respect to the practices and usages of the House.

I suggest that, by unanimous consent, all the private members' public bills listed for introduction on today's order paper be deemed to have been introduced, given first reading, ordered to be printed and to stand for second reading at the next sitting of the House, subject, as always, to a subsequent examination as to the procedural regularity of each bill.

Is the procedure to which I have just referred agreeable to the House?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. Lambert (Edmonton West): Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order. While perusing the list I found at approximately No. 275—actually it appears as the second item in the first column on page 20 of the order paper—a bill which is in my name. It reads:

An act to change the name of the electoral district of Edmonton West.

That is complete news to me. There has actually been a bill submitted with wording to the effect "An act to amend the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act". It was Bill C-342 introduced last year. How on earth somebody would connect that with changing the name of Edmonton West, which is, I suppose, the most historic name in the province of Alberta, I do not know. Such a proposal would only merit that I be run out of town on a rail.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Speaker: I take it that in the sense of the hon. member's representation, that item will be deleted from the order paper as soon as possible, which we will do. It is so ordered.
