

P R A Y E R S .

SUNDAY MORNING.

ALMIGHTY and merciful Father, we bless and praise thy holy Name, that thou hast safely brought us to the beginning of this, thy holy day; give us grace to observe it in a becoming manner. After Thou, Lord, hadst made the heavens and the earth, thou didst rest on the seventh day from all thy works, and commanded us, thy creatures, to set apart a seventh portion of our time to thy more peculiar service: help us, we humbly beseech thee, to obey this, thy Commandment, by sanctifying this day to thy honour. We thank thee that thou hast been pleased to require us to love and serve thee: because we know that in thy favour only is life; and we bless thee that thou