

CHAPTER III.

1749-1753.

CONFLICT FOR THE WEST.

	PAGE
The Five Nations.—Caughnawaga.—Abbé Piquet: his Schemes; his Journey.—Fort Frontenac.—Toronto.—Niagara.—Oswego.—Success of Piquet.—Detroit.—La Jonquière: his Intrigues; his Trials; his Death.—English Intrigues.—Critical State of the West.—Pickawillany destroyed.—Duquesne: his Grand Enterprise	67

CHAPTER IV.

1710-1754.

CONFLICT FOR ACADIA.

Acadia ceded to England.—Acadians swear Fidelity.—Halifax founded.—French Intrigue.—Acadian Priests.—Mildness of English Rule.—Covert Hostility of Acadians.—The New Oath.—Treachery of Versailles.—Indians incited to War.—Clerical Agents of Revolt.—Abbé Le Loutre.—Acadians impelled to emigrate.—Misery of the Emigrants.—Humanity of Cornwallis and Hopson.—Fanaticism and Violence of Le Loutre.—Capture of the "St. François."—The English at Beaubassin.—Le Loutre drives out the Inhabitants.—Murder of Howe.—Beauséjour.—Insolence of Le Loutre: his Harshness to the Acadians.—The Boundary Commission: its Failure.—Approaching War	94
--	----

CHAPTER V.

1753, 1754.

WASHINGTON.

The French occupy the Sources of the Ohio: their Sufferings.—Fort Le Bœuf.—Legardeur de Saint-Pierre.—Mission of Washington.—Robert Dinwiddie: he opposes the French; his Dispute with the Burgesses; his Energy; his Appeals for Help.—Fort Duquesne.—Death of Jumonville.—Washington at the Great Meadows.—Coulon de Villiers.—Fort Necessity	133
---	-----