

TYR

Tyre, worship of a statue of Hercules at, 263

UNKTAHE, water-god of the Dakotas, 218

VEDDAHS of Ceylon, their religious ideas, 183

Vesali, religious character of the courtesans of, 104

Virginia, religious dance of the natives of, 179

WALES, marriage customs in, 96
Warali tribes, restrictions on marriage in the, 110

Water-worship, in Europe, 213

— — Siberia, 215

— — India, 216

— — Africa, 216, 217

— — N. America, 217

— — S. America, 220

Wells, sacred, in Scotland, 214

Wergild of the Anglo-Saxons, 365

Whately, Dr., Archbishop of Dublin, his views as to the condition of savages, 369

— answers to his arguments, 373

Whiddah, or Whydah, an idol of, 191

— water-worship at, 216

Wills, modern origin of, 354

Witchcraft among savages, 170

— its similarity in various parts of the world, 170, 171

— the belief in, shared by Europeans, 173

Wives, custom of supplying guests with, 92, 102

Women, position of, among savages, 59, 78

— communities in which women have exercised the supreme power, 78, 79

ZUN

Women—continued.

— origin of exogamy, 106

— causes of polygamy, 114

— endogamy, 117

— inheritance through females, 120

— position of women in Australia, 411

Wrestling for a wife, custom of, 79

Writing, used as medicine, 19

— surprise of savages at, as a mode of communication, 35

— picture-writing, 37

— — Indian bark letters, 42-44

— application of art to purposes of personal decoration, 46

YERKALAS of Southern India, marriage customs of the, 118

ZEALANDERS, New, their tattooing, 34

— their courtship and marriage, 92

— endogamy among them, 119

— evil spirits, how regarded by them, 150

— sorcery and witchcraft among them, 169, 170

— custom of hardening the heart to pity, 16

— causes of their cannibalism, 16

— their belief in the destruction of body and spirit, 161

— their mode of divination, 165

— their worship of animals, 194, 195

— red a sacred colour with them, 223

— their worship of the rainbow, 234

— their belief in the destruction of both body and soul, 280

— their absence of moral feeling, 298

— their three tenures of land 353

Zoolatry, 182, 193

Zuni, sacred well of, 219