Cyclopedia of Practical Quotations

"The Wisdom of the Wise and the Experience of Ages May be Preserved in a Quotation."

AN INVALUABLE BOOK FOR LAWYERS, EDITORS, AUTHORS, SPEAKERS, MINISTERS, AND ALL INTELLIGENT MEN AND WOMEN WHO WISH TO BEAUTIFY AND STRENGTHEN THEIR SPOKEN OR WRITTEN WORDS BY APT QUOTATIONS.

"A great man Quotes bravely, and will not draw on his invention when his memory serves him with a word as good."—Emerson.

Representative Men and Leading Periodicals Believe this Book Should be Within Easy Reach in Every Library. Read a Few of the Opinions.

The Springfield [Mass.] Republican:

"It is so absolutely indispensable. . . . When it comes to estimating the comparative merits of quotation dictionaries, the newspaper is in an excellent position to pass judgment; and in the case of the Hoyt-Ward Cyclopedia our judgment is one of emphatic commendation. . . ."

The New York Herald:

"It is by long odds the best Cyclopedia of Quotations in existence."

The Boston Globe:

"One of the most valuable books of the times;—a volume indispensable to the man of letters, and one which should be in the library of every reader."

The Inter Ocean, Chicago:

"A rich mine of information open to every inquirer, and bewildering to none."

The Press, Philadelphia:

"A rich storehouse—any one who dips into it will place it among his well-chosen books."

The San Francisco Chronicle:

"A work which no one who does literary work can afford to do without."

The Pittsburg Commercial Gazette:

"A monument of research, industry, and learning."

Hon. Samuel J. Randall, ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives:

"Enclosed find check for copy of 'Cyclopedia of Quotations.' I am much pleased with it. I consider it the best book of quotations which I have seen."

Hon. Frederick T. Frelinghuysen:

"The authors have overcome the difficulties in the way of producing a book of useful and interesting reference which goes over new ground in a new way."

Gen. Stuart L. Woodford:

"It seems to me the most complete and accurate work of the kind I have ever seen. Such a book is almost invaluable."

Hon. Geo. F. Edmunds, ex-U. S. Senator:

"Your 'Cyclopedia of Quotations' is the most complete and best work of the kind with which I am acquainted. The arrangement and classification are admirable. . . . It deserves a place on every library table."

Hon. Abram S. Hewitt, of New York:

"A work indispensable to authors, scholars, and speakers. The completeness of the indexes is simply astonishing; and altogether the design is so well executed as to leave nothing to be desired on the part of those who may have occasion to find or verify a quotation. And who is there who has not such need?"
