

P R E F A C E

To the American Edition.

The appearance of a new book is an indication that another man has found a mission, has entered upon the performance of a lofty duty, actuated only by the noblest impulses that can spur the soul of man to action. It is the proudest boast of the profession of literature, that no man ever published a book for selfish purposes or with ignoble aim. Books have been published for the consolation of the distressed; for the guidance of the wandering; for the relief of the destitute; for the hope of the penitent; for uplifting the burdened soul above its sorrows and fears; for the general amelioration of the condition of all mankind; for the right against the wrong; for the good against the bad; for the truth. This book is published for two dollars per volume.

R. J. B.

T
We open
around us
dreams, a
and every
of new m
these dre
born fact
gradually
bright an
and won
years of l earn our only the
hood's sh
Year afte
earnest, i
destals u
enshrined
crumble
We live t
Boots;"
tragedy
time whe
and then
one heart
darling
knowledg
confessed
to look
myth, au
of all th
to the co
man—the
too old—
much ab
gradual
the crow
his natu
perfectly
kept too
his lip,
above it
never ra
itself ou
like a p
weeds on torment
his farm
weed-pr
order of