

not in a liberal spirit—
the benefits intended
of one Church,

is made, have been

of the Province have
from many do credit
which these Schools
denomination, that
could profit by those Committee, in which
lly participate in the
without a distinction

ed, for the benefit of
and consequently your
have been deprived of

1807, soon after the
ernment from among
l to their religious
Church of England
t first, only one out

ly is not, it could be
ne children, unless it
Teachers have been
tunities of education
tem of education has children. No com-
that it could not be

acted upon in the

nt, your Committee
District (Grammar)
ted to what religious

e only in doubt with ny case arises from
observed :

ned Minister of the
since taken orders in

Church of England.

f England.

f England.

byterian.

ince taken orders in

n of the Church of

Mr. Henry James of Cornwall.—Church of England.

The Reverend Joseph Johnston of Cornwall.—Presbyterian Minister.

Mr. William Johnson of Amherstburgh and Sandwich.—Presbyterian when appointed, has since taken orders in the Church of England.

Mr. John Law of Hamilton.—Presbyterian.

The Reverend John Leeds of Brockville.—Clergyman of the Church of England.

The Reverend Harry Leith of Cornwall.—Clergyman of the Church of England.

The Reverend Ralph Loeming of—, Clergyman of the Church of England.

The Reverend William Macaulay of Cobourg.—Clergyman of the Church of England.

The Reverend Alexander McIntosh of Sandwich.—Clergyman of the Church of England.

The Reverend John McLaurin of Hawkesbury.—Clergyman of the Church of Scotland.

Mr. William Merrill of—, Church of England.

Mr. James Mitchell of London.—Church of Scotland, afterward Judge of the County Court of London.

Mr. David Ovals of Cobourg.—Believed to be Church of England.

Mr. James Padfield of Brockville.—Methodist when appointed; afterward Church of England Minister.

Mr. William Pitt—, of Church of England.

Mr. Alexander Pringle of—, Presbyterian.

Rev. Thomas Phillips, D.D., of York.—Clergyman of Church of England.

Mr. Stephen Randal of Hamilton.—Church of England.

Mr. David Robertson of Sandwich.—Presbyterian when appointed, and while he held school, but has since taken orders in the Church of England.

Mr. George Ryerson of London.—Church of England when appointed, now a Methodist Minister.

Mr. John Stewart of Perth.—Believed to be a Presbyterian.

The Reverend George Okill Stuart of Kingston.—Clergyman of the Church of England.

The Reverend John Strachan of York.—Clergyman of the Church of England.

The Reverend Hugh Urquhart of Cornwall.—Clergyman of the Church of Scotland.

The Reverend John Wilson of Kingston.—Clergyman of the Church of England.

Mr. John Whitelaw of Kingston and Niagara.—Presbyterian.

It appears, therefore, that according to this list, which we believe to be correct, twenty of the Teachers appointed during the whole period have been members of the Church of England, and eighteen have been members of other religious persuasions, including in those eighteen, sixteen Presbyterians, and six [altered to eight on the 27th of February, 1830,] of these in Holy Orders.

It is also observable that those who held the situations for the longest periods of time, are :

Of the Church of England.	Years.	Of Presbyterians.	Years.
The Reverend Dr. Strachan.....	15	Mr. John Whitelaw.....	9
The Reverend John Wilson.....	7	Mr. James Mitchell.....	9
		Mr. John Burns.....	8

13. And it also but just to state, that for a long time and in several of the Districts the resident clergymen of the Church of England was the only Gentleman either able or desirous to take charge of a classical school, and that these being selected in such cases certainly affords no proof of an illiberal spirit. When to these facts it is added, from information afforded to the Committee by an Honourable member of this House, that on the occasion of a vacancy occurring in the District of Johnstown the Reverend Mr. William Smart, the very gentleman who in the capacity of Moderator of the Presbyterians signs the Petition referred to us, might have obtained the situation of Teacher of the District School of that District, in which he then resided and still