

CONTENTS.

vii

of Trumbull 38—Congress privateer takes the Savage 16—cruise of the Alliance in the West-Indies—escape of the Hague 39, Captain Manly..... 108

CHAPTER XII.

Battle of the Hyder Ally, Captain Barney, and Monk, Captain Rogers—state cruisers—South Carolina—her capture—end of war of revolution..... 117

CHAPTER XIII.

Commencement of present navy—quasi war with France..... 123

CHAPTER XIV.

First vessel at sea—is Croyable taken—escape of the Retaliation, Lieutenant Bainbridge..... 136

CHAPTER XV.

Vessels of war at sea in 1799—Constellation 38, captures l'In- surgente 36—vessels at sea in 1800—action between Constel- lation and la Vengeance—Lieutenant Hull cuts out the Sand- wich—loss of l'Inurgente and Pickering—cruises and actions of Enterprise, Lieutenant Commandant Shaw—Boston engages boats—captures the Bercesu—French privateers taken —Experiment, Lieutenant Commandant Maley, engages berges—Experiment, Lieutenant Commandant Stewart, captures Diane—captures English privateer—end of French war
—peace establishment..... 139

CHAPTER XVI.

War with Tripoli—Commodore Dale's squadron—Enterprise
captures the Tripoli—negotiations..... 150

CHAPTER XVII.

Law of 1800—Commodore Morris' squadron sent to Mediterranean—Boston 34, Captain M'Neill—Constellation opens the war before the town of Tripoli—movements of squadron under Commodore Morris—arrives off Tripoli—attack on wheat vessels—attack on gun-boats—John Adams, Captain Rodgers, destroys an enemy's cruiser—gallant behaviour of Lieutenant Commandant Hull—Commodore Morris returns home—deaths and resignations..... 155