

sounds of e and o in met, not; e.g. ēk, τόν; except when they stand before another vowel or at the end of a word, in which positions they are lengthened.

23. The vowels, a and u, are pronounced like a and i in Latin, sometimes with the long English sounds, as in made, pine, and sometimes with the short sounds, as in mad, pin. In words of more than one syllable, however, final a has the sound of final a in America.

2. Sounds of the Diphthongs.

24. ai	like ai in aisle ; e.g. aiρω .
ei	ei height ; e.g. εἰς .
oi	oi coin ; e.g. τοῖν .
au	au author ; e.g. ναῦς .
eu and ηυ	eu neuter ; e.g. πλεύσω .
ou	ou noun ; e.g. νοῦν .
ui	ui quire ; e.g. μνᾶ .

The improper diphthongs, ᾳ, ῃ, and ῳ, are pronounced precisely like a, η, and ω.

3. Sounds of the Consonants.

25. The consonants are pronounced nearly as in English; γ, however, is always hard, like g in go, except before κ, γ, χ, and ξ, where it has the sound of ng in sing, as ἄγγελος, pronounced anggelos; θ has the sound of th in thin; σ and τ never have the sound of sh like s and t in Latin and English: thus Ἀσία is not pronounced Ashia, but with the ordinary sound of s; Κριθία is not pronounced Krishias, but with the ordinary sound of t.
