WOMAN'S WORLD

THURSDAY MORNING

FRENCH BLOUSES.

There is a pretty new lingeric confection which outrivals the more elaborately trimmed waists in its charm of color. It is a colored lawn "over waist," in delicate pale or light blue and made from one of the popular atterns with low cut arms and neck. A few fine tucks are set in along the front and the whole is edged with an insertion of lacy embroidery interlacing along the shoulders. This is worn over an embroidered net waist with sleeves of full valenciennes edgings and under this is worn a silk slip in the same shade as the outside lawn.

The rage for color under the lace waists has taken the place of the color under lingerie. Only that in these hinner, more open materials awn will tot do as a makeshift and silk and even shimmering and high surfaced on the same shade at the open patterned lanys are mounted over light colored atins and vivid satin linings are wern inder thinner lace waists, which are just in the preferred color, as the result is a soft plate clow shade. being the preferred color, as the result is a soft pink glow shade.

IN THE MARKETS.

St. Lawrence Market, cold as it was yesterday, had its quota of prudent housewives, looking for the best prices, which ran like this:

Poultry.

Chicken—Broilers at 15c a pound; "old hens for bolling," as the marketwoman expressed it, 9c and 10c a pound; geese, 12c; ducks 14c and 15c; turkeys 15c to 17c.

Round steak 12 1-2c a pound; sirloin 15c; porterhouse 15c to 17c; sirloin roast 16c; wing and rib roast 12 1-2c.

Paris Pattern No. 1804.

All Seams Allowed.

The skirt here illustrated is a ningored plaited model and is an exceedingly good style for pongees, India and China silks, lightweight cloths and woolens, and also for linens and muslins. The gores are planned so that the plaits are shallow at the top and fold under quite deeply toward the foot, giving graceful fiaring lines and the desirable close adjustment about the hips. The plaits are stitched down to a modish distance below the hip-line and are well pressed to retain their folds all the way to the edge of the hip.

The pattern is in six sizes—22 to 32 inches, waist measure: For 26 waist the skirt needs 15 yards of material 20 inches wide, or 8 3-4 yards 36 inches wide, or 7 3-4 yards 42 inches wide, or 6 5-8 yards 54 inches wide.

One of the most fashionable events ever witnessed in St. Catharines was sclemnized on Tuesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, when in the old parish church of St. George's, Henrietta Josephine, eldest daughter of the late Dr. William Dougan, was married to Herbert Meyer Bate, youngest son of the late Mr. T. B. Bate.

The beautiful old church was resplendent in its decorations of palms and white crepe de chene and in the dining-room, which was a foretaste of spring in its decorations of daffodis and narcissus, by Miss Brenda Smellie, Miss Kate R. Thompson, B.A., of Watford, Ont., to Mr. William G. Connolly, B.A., of Mallorytown.

Among those present were Miss Muriel Smellie, Miss Leah McCarthy is to be the flower girl at Miss Honor Clayton's wedding in Ottawa on Saturday.

USE BRAZER ERECHMETER AND LOVE

Don't let the fakirs, imitators or substituters take you into camp. If a gold brick artist or a green goods man should offer you any of their wares you would be justly indignant at their assuming that you were so verdant. You have just as good reason to be indignant when you are offered an imitation of or a substitute for Sanivas Teasted Corn Flakes, the original and only genuine ready te-eat corn food on the market. Note the above package carefully. Only the genuine has the word "Sanitas" with the signature of W. K. Kellogg. St. Paul's Church was the scene of an unusually pretty wedding yesterday afternoon, when Miss Etta Florence Taylor was married to Mr. George C. Gale, the Rev. Canon Cody officiating, with a fully choral service.

The church was a mass of palms and white flowers, forming the prettiest of backgrounds for the charming gowns of the wedding party.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white Duchesse satin, with yoke, bertha, and skirt garniture of rose point lace. Her tulle veil was fastened with a coronet of orange-blossoms, and her bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Evelyn Taylor, and the three bridesmaids, Miss Gale, Miss Lou Davies and Miss Eva Gage, were dressed alike in embroidered chiffon over pink taffeta, with long sashes of pink satin and big picture-hats. They carried pink roses.

The ushers were Mr. Arthur Allan, Mr. Irving, Mr. Maclaren, Mr. Phillips and Mr. Baker.

After the reception at the residence of the bride's parents on Sherbournestreet, Mr. and Mrs. Gale left for New York, Mrs. Gale travelling in navy blue broadcloth, with mink and ermine furs and toque of blue velvet, with touches of gold and pink roses.

A pretty house wedding took place

A pretty house wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Edward Culverhouse, Jameson-avenue, yesterday, when his daughter, Clara, was married to Mr. Robert J. Lowrey.

The bride was gowned in white silk crepe de chene, with broderie anglaise, and wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms.

The bridesmaids, Miss Grace Culverhouse and Miss Lowrey, wore pretty frocks of pale grey silk and earried pink roses.

After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Bernard Bryan, followed a reception, after which the happy pair left for New York and Philadelphia, Mrs. Lowrey wearing a smart brown tailor-made and a mink stole and muff.

Winnipeg, Feb. 6.—(Special.)—The fuel situation is growing serious in winnipeg and dealers are practically out of coal.

While this year achieves the largest gross increase in a single year, it is also by far the largest percentage of increase in a single year, it is also by far the largest percentage of increase in twelve months. The orders for the first two months of their present fiscal year exceed those of the corresponding months of the previous year by $159,000.

Ninety-eight new agencies were opened by the company during the year. Orders came unsolicited from many foreign countries, including South Africa, the West Indies, and from Newfoundland. The president pointed out the need for more factory accommodation. "We have outgrown our present quarters," he said. The directors arranged to hold a special meeting to deal with factory requirements and extension.
