A WARM RECEPTION PROMISED HIM.

Colborne's Chief Constable Is Afraid That Indignant Neighbors May Lynch Him

John W. Hoyt, alias Pickle, was arrested by Detectives Davis and Slemm, yesterday, for committing a robbery of a five-year-old child, daughter of a farmer residing near Colborne. The crime was committed about the middle of June while all other members of the family were absent, excepting the servant girl and the child. It was supposed that Hoyt went east and the police of Kingston and Montreal have been keeping a lookout for him. Hoyt came to Toronto yesterday, and in less than an hour was in the hands of the detectives. Constable Smith of Colborne was wired, and came to Toronto by first train, returning almost immediately with his prisoner, being run so high in Colborne against Hoyt that Smith stated he feared Hoyt would be lynched when his arrest became known. Hoyt has already received a term of five years in a Rochester penitentiary.

"CONFISCATE THE LANDLORDS."
Dillon Advises the Irish Party to Work That End

Dublin, Aug. 29.—John Dillon, M. P. speaking here to-day, said there would not be the slightest use in re-debating the Evicted Tenants' bill next session, unless the Irish should utilize the interval in such a way as to convince the landlords that their policy would be to pass the bill. Unless the Government plainly declared its policy in regard to the House of Lords, the Irish party would have to reconsider their position.

BODIES COLLIDE IN MID-AIR.

A BOY DIES FROM A FIFTH STORY ONTO A FIRM'S HEAD.

Three Lives Lost in a New York Fire—Fireman Killed Knocked off a Ladder by His Belongings—The Boy Killed, Landing on a Firm's Head.

New York, Aug. 29.—The six-story building No. 226 Livingston-street was burned at 2:30 this morning. A man and two boys lost their lives, and Timothy Collins, a fireman, is lying seriously injured in Governor's Hospital. Several of his ribs are broken, and he is hurt internally.

The fire started on the third floor in Fabrice Levine's tailor shop, at 2:20 o'clock, and in less than ten minutes the flames had darted up the stairway to the roof. In 15 minutes the entire interior of the building was a veritable cauldron of fire.

When the fire was discovered Herman Forman, Levine's watchman, escaped down the iron ladder with nothing but an undershirt. He was followed by two men who had been working on the second floor, which was used as a Jewish synagogue.

The firemen put up ladders against the iron fire escapes. Fireman Timothy Collins, who had been working on the second floor, was killed when he fell from a ladder. A boy named Collins, who had been working on the second floor, was killed when he fell from a ladder.

As for Collins, he was knocked from the fire escape by a heavy beam of wood. He was taken to Governor's Hospital, where he is lying seriously injured. His recovery is doubtful.

Smothered As They Slept.
The flames burst their way through the roof before they could be checked. When the firemen finally entered the building they found the bodies of a man of 40 years and a boy about 16 years old. They were lying side by side on a tailor's bench, and had evidently been smothered as they slept.

The bodies were found last night by the firemen. The man was identified as that of a watchman named Herman Forman, who had been working on the second floor. The boy was identified as that of a watchman named Timothy Collins, who had been working on the second floor.

STORMY TIME ON THE LAKE.

Much Inconvenience Occasioned Incoming Passengers By Boat, But No Damage Reported.

All day yesterday the lake was very boisterous. If the rain did not materialize to any considerable extent, the same cannot be said of the wind. The ocean breeze blew down the lake from the east at a lively rate, lashing the water into an angry swirl that created much excitement tinged with inconvenience among the passengers on the boats.

Among the first to suffer from the effects of the storm were the Army and Navy Veterans, who had arranged to travel to Oshkosh on the Kookaburra, leaving the wharf at 10:45. Owing to the heavy sea, the boat could not get into Oshkosh, and two boys lost their lives, and Timothy Collins, a fireman, is lying seriously injured in Governor's Hospital.

KILLED ON HIS FIRST TRIP.

TORONTO COMMERCIAL MAN THROWN UNDER HIS HORSE'S HEELS.

While Driving From Newcastle to Orono Jacob Spence, Traveler for William Bryce, Is Precipitated From His Big and Sustains Fatal Injuries—Had Only Been Married About a Month.

Jacob D. Spence, aged 38, of 42 Park-road, this city, traveler for William Bryce, wholesale heavy goods, El Front-street, was accidentally killed near Orono, Durham County, yesterday afternoon.

Deceased left Toronto on Monday on his first trip for the firm. From Newcastle throughout the Durham district it was necessary to make the trip by horse and conveyance. He left Newcastle Monday morning, and while driving down the hill approaching Orono with his load of 11 trunks a valve on his seat slipped forward, and to save it he made a jump, but in so doing lost his balance and control of the team and fell under the horse's heels. The wagon passed over his body, breaking his neck, and the fall caused internal injuries of a serious nature. Dr. Rutherford of Orono was summoned, and with the assistance of Mr. Hall conveyed him to the Windsor Hotel. He was quite sensible along the route, and his wife reported that when he said, "I will never see Newcastle alive," from the hotel, while Dr. Rutherford, Dr. Farcombe of Newcastle, and Miss Ried, his wife at 42 Park-road, his mother also resided with him. His brothers are F. S. Spence, secretary of the Commercial Union, and W. J. Spence, vice-president of the W. J. Spence Company. The latter left for Newcastle yesterday morning, and will bring the body home this morning.

The aged mother of the deceased and his widow both of whom were notified of the occurrence and are almost stricken with grief. Spence was for years a traveler in the Western States, and only entered the employ of Mr. Bryce two or three weeks ago.

Mr. Spence Russell. The World had a talk with Sol Smith Russell last night. He talks like he talks, or to those who knew him before he became an actor, but he is not the same on the stage as he talks off it. The same thing, driving voice, and an air as serious as a general, but he is not the same on the stage as he talks off it.
