Mr. Ambrose Kent and other retailers endorsed Mr. Ellis and a discussion followed.

Mr. G. S. Russell asked for a reduction of the duty on bead ornaments from 35 per cent. to 25 per cent. to enable the Canadian importer to compete with his American rival. He also asked for discrimination as to the importation of walking sticks and trimmings. As regards silver and gold laces for regalia, it was complained that the duty on the parts was higher than on the finished article. Curling stones were recommended to be put on the free list.

Mr. Emil Poliska, representing the manufacturers of Sapolio, asked that that article should be allowed to come in under the same duty as laundry soap, as it did not compete to any extent with them. The duty, he said, should be 20 per cent, instead of 35 per cent. He also objected to the present import charge on posters and advertising matter connected with Sapolio.

Mr. A. A. Barthelmes of A. A. Barthelmes & Co. complained that the duty on the raw material for "plano actions" was higher than that on the finished article. In many cases the duty on the screws, felts, etc., used was double that on the completed article. He also mentioned a similar state of affairs as regards autoharps. He wanted his hands strengthened as against the French and United States makers.

The best meetin Bishop Sullivan's reception on Tuesday night. The apple of discord is in the question whether Bishop DuMoulin is entitled to salary from June 24, the date of his resignation as rector of St. James, and the date of his consecration as Bishop of Niagara. Mr. S. H. Blake has taken out an injunction against the payment of this salary, which amounts to $1250, on the ground that a bishop cannot legally receive benefice from a congregation. The matter, will be considered by the Executive Committee of the church to-morrow night.

IT'S A GOOD OPPORTUNITY.

Stylish Furs, Any lady who contemplates buying furs for this winter's wear should go at once to Dineens', where special clearing sale prices now prevail, and there is a very large and choice variety of all kinds to choose from. It is foolish to wait until Any lady who contemplates buying furs choose from. It is foolish to wait until the season is more advanced, as prices will never be so low as they are at present, and the purchaser now has the pick of an immense stock, all this season's goods.

There is no time like the present for the purchase of fine fur jackets. Dineens have the largest assortment in Canada of high-grade seal, Persian lamb, grey lamb, and fine astrachan jackets, also valuable mink capes, sable capes, choice evening wraps, fur-lined cloaks, victorines, short capes, boas, ruffs, gauntlets, caps and numerous other novelties of the latest New York and Parisian fashion.

The sale now on at Dineens' is thoroughly genuine, and all goods are marked down fully, according to representation. The skins are of the finest and are manufactured by Dineens, who employ the most skilied work people.

It is unwise to delay making this season's fur purchase, as this opportunity now offered by Dineens is one of a life time. They will be pleased to allow callers to inspect the immense stock at the big store, corner King and Yonge-streets.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL

The Expected Trouble at the Meeting of Ward 2 Conservative Association Did Not Materialize.

It was anticipated that all kinds of things that was the reason there was such a good attendance, but those who went expecting a racket were doomed to disappointment, for, although there was lots of noise, it was of the good-natured order, and bitter references to the trouble in the ranks of the ences to the trouble in the ranks of the association, owing to the last elections, DRIVING THROUGH A SWAMP. were very few.

President W. J. Hambly, in a short speech at the opening of the meeting, said that unavoidable circumstances had prevented the annual meeting being held in time to elect officers before the meeting of the Central Association. He referred briefly to the unfortunate and unpleasant condition of the association is at May and June, when Conservatives were at each other's throats, but that was all past now, and the association was re-united for mutual benefit.

The only audible dissenter to the President's statement was Mr. James Adams, but Mr. Hambly good-humoredly jollied him along, and then went on to say that the defeat of the party at the recent election was because the Conservatives had been so long in power, and the leaders had become to some extent careless. The former heads of Ward 2 Association and perhaps been affected in the same way as the leaders. Mr. Hambly referred to a pledge he had had placed in front of the roll book. It read: "I hereby express my desire to become a member of the Liberal-Conservative Association and of the Liberal-Conservative Association of the city; to pay all fees duly levied under and in pursuance of the same, and I am of the full age of 18 years and upwards, and am not a member of any association, club or body not in harmony with the Liberal-Conservative party of Canada."

MR. HEWITT BOBS UP.

There was some cross-firing between John Hewitt and Mr. Hambly regarding who should vote. Mr. Hambly held that it was only those who signed the roll, and after 10th members affixer their names and paid their dues. Mr. Hewitt wanted to submit a resolution, but he was ruled out of order, and the voting was gone on with by those who slage abrasions on his forehead over his left eye, as well as an injured arm and lacerated hand. He was ruled out of order, and the voting was gone on with by those who had placed their names upon the roll. The election of officers was then proceeded with, and the contest throughout was a warm one.

THE SCRAMBLE FOR OFFICE.

The candidates for the presidency were Dr. S. S. Thompson, Thomas Foster, W. J. Hambly and R. S. Neville. D. Noble, A. E. Kemp and Mr. Walker were also nominated, but retired. On the first ballot no one got a sufficient number of votes to be elected according to the constitution.

After another ballot the election developed into a fight between Dr. Thompson and Mr. Hambly, the latter winning with 68 votes to his credit. The balance of the officers elected are as follows: 1st Vice-President, K. S. Neville; 2nd Vice-President, ex-Ald. Foster; 3rd Vice-President, ex-Ald. Foster; 3rd Vice-President, ex-Ald. Foster; 3rd Vice-President, w. Nev. 1927 (Special).

Government Ministers to hold their tariff session in the Board of Trade rooms. Before the date of such session the board will hold special meetings of representatives of trade, manufacturing and financial interest, for the purpose of selecting spokesmen and discussing matters that it may be considered advisable to bring to the attention of the Ministers. An effort was made to rescind a resolution adopted at a former meeting, and throw the board rooms open to the use of all trade societies and shareholders of joint stock companies upon payment of the sum of $2 for each of such meetings. The vote resulted in a tie, the president to leave the thing open for subsequent discussion.
