CITY HALL NOTES

The mills of the city council will grind this afternoon and evening. Four committees are due to meet. The legislation committee has been called for 4 o'clock, to confer with the citizens' committee re the selection of a site for the proposed armory. In the evening No. 1 committee will hold a regular meeting; the hospital building committee is due to award the contract for the electric lighting of the Toronto, April 14 — 10 a.m. — tract for the electric lighting of the new building, and No. 2 committee will act on Engineer Chipman's suggestion, are region for the next 24 hours: by trying to provide for the adjustment of the expense of laying storm water sewers.

The last-named task involves a lot of work. It is out of Mr. Chipman's province, as he was engaged only to engineer the main sewer system. However, he has advised the committee to have a plan prepared showing the streets on which storm water sewers will have to be laid, and to adjust the assessment for them so that all ratesitting of the weekly high court tomor- payers in the district benefited by them will contribute to the cost.

Mr. Chipman, speaking of the sewage last night. A couple of hours were disposal problem, said this morning passed pleasantly with speeceh, music that the "septic tank," the Dibden and other bacteriological systems were on the same principle as the land filtration members says the snowdrops were a system originally proposed for London. month behind time this year. Last year The sewage is purified by microbes, he first saw a snowdrop March 14; this whether retained in hermetically-sealed tanks, open tanks or land beds. In Exeter, England, where the septic tank system is used, there are filtration areas in connection. The land for the proposed farm in London is admirably suited for filtration beds, both as to soil and location.

It is not probable that the sewer committee will take up the question of present visit. The committee, together with Mr. William Jones, chairman of Chipman, visited the asylum farm yesterday, and those of the members

DINGWALL-YOUNG

Another Tie Between the Two Great North American Countries.

The following account of an Anglo-American alliance, which will be of interest to many London people, appeared in the Owosso, Mich., Argus on April 11:

This afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's uncle, Edward Carr,319 Hickory street,occurred one of Brussels, April 14.—Queen Marie Carr,319 Hickory street,occurred one of Henriette of Belgium has so far recovered her health ofter her dangerous one of the prettiest home weddings sickness that the doctors have decided ever seen in Owosso. The rainstorm in-that she may be moved, and have orwas Miss Ella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dingwall, of Pine street. The groom was Mr. John Young, of London, Ont. The ceremony took place in the parlor, nicely decorated with pink and white carnations, and pretty strings of smilax. Rev. John Sweet, of this city, officiated, assisted by Rev. W. H. Simmons, of Corunna. Only a few friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. The ring service was used. The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of navy blue. She was attended by her sister, Miss Bertha Dingwall, and the groom's best man was his brother, J. W. Young, of Mandaumin, Ont.

After a half-hour of congratulations the guests spent an hour in the enjoy-ment of an elegant wedding dinner, and an examination of the bride's gifts, She received a long list of expensive and very beautiful presents. The groom presented his bride with a handsome diamond pin and the bridesmaid with a gold watch. Mr. Carr, uncle of the bride, gave $100 in gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Young will leave on the evening train for their home in London, where Mr. Young is connected with the A. Westman wholesale and retail hardware house. In Miss Dingwall's marriage and departure from Owosso, her many friends lose from their circle a young lady beautiful both in face and character, a friend who was invariably the same, and universally liked. For three years, Miss Dingwall has made her home with her aunt and uncle, agreement had been arrived at with Mr. and Mrs. Carr, who looked upon the young lady as though she were their daughter.

The Grand River Makes Things Uncomfortable at Elora.

Fergus, Ont., April 14.-At 6:45 p.m. yesterday the heavy ice jam on Glen Lammond dam, nine miles above this place, gave way, carrying with it the dam at Glen Lammond sawmill, the flume at one of Wilson's mills, and the flume and water wheel at Beatty Bros. & Bissel's foundry, besides doing considerable damage to J. Gow's stable. The Grand River railroad bridge had a very narrow escape, some of the stones on the pier being dislodged, while the new flumes at Aboyne were swept away. There was almost a loss of life to add to the list of catastrophes when Messrs. Henry Webster, sen., and Jas. Hanna, who were viewing the flood, got submerged. Mr. Hanna losing his hold of the fence on which he was perched, plunged to the river bottom, but was gallantly rescued by Mr. George Kerr. The flood swept away one bridge on the sixth line of Garafraxa and also the bridge above Wilson's mill. The water was never higher, so far as can be remembered, in any spring freshet.

AT ELORA.

The water in the Grand River at Elora commenced to rise about seven o'clock, and large masses of ice came down the stream, doing great damage to mills and factories on the river banks. The lower flat of the Dominion Brussels Carpet Company's mill was flooded, and the flumes carried away, but the damage was limited mainly to the real estate. Richardson's sawmill, Howard's flour mills, and Mundell & Co's furniture factory were each damaged. The Elora bridge had a very narrow escape. The masonry work of the G. T. R. bridge a short distance north of Elora was swept away. The water is now subsiding.

FORFEITED HIS SEAT

A Vacant Senatorship - Hon. John Sutherland Fails to Attend.

For the fourth time in the history of the senate a member of the upper house has lost his seat through contravention of the constitution of the senate, providing that any senator absent for two consecutive sessions shall forfeit his membership. Sir Edward Kenny, of Nova Scotia was the first who lost his seat under the circumstances provided for. In 1884 Senator Dickson and 1894 Senator Alexander, both of whom had absented themselves for two consecutive sessions, lost their seats. In the Upper House this afternoon Mr. Speaker Pelletier presented the report of the committee on the orders and customs of the senate with reference to the absence for two consecutive sessions of Hon. John Sutherland, one of the senators from Mani-toba, whose residence is at Winnipeg. The report recommended that under provisions of section 32 of the British North America act the senate should declare the seat vacant. On motion of Hon. David Mills the report was adopted. Senator Scott and others spoke in high terms of Senator Sutherland.
