Dancers Excel.

It would be impossible to praise the work of the three aesthetic dancers. Muriel Lea, Helen Codd and Olga Fricker, too greatly. Their interpretations were realistic and their dancing the essence of grace and beauty. They probably were best in the "Chinese Fantasy," but they were also excellent in the gypsy and Spanish dances and "Yes, Olde Tyme Gavotte."

Individually, they were the creators of some splendid solo work. Muriel Lea in "The Vintage," was especially good, while Helen Codd was responsible for some excellent toe-dancing in "The Souvenir," and Olga Fricker excelled in the "Russlan Copak," Their costumes were splendid.
