Guelph Soldiers Give Orators a Lively Time at Anti-Conscription Meeting.

Special to The Toronto World.

Guelph, May 31.-One of the most ning in the trades and labor hall, under the auspices of the Socialist-Demo-cratic party. The meeting was called for the purpose of opposing conscription and, as was anticipated, the hall was filled to the doors. The 64th Battery, about 75 in number, marched to the meeting in a body and occupied the first seats, and the returned soldiers were well represented. It was rumored during the day that the soldiers would make trouble if any of the speakers made any seditious atterances, and their presence at the meeting no doubt had an effect on the speakers, as they spoke in fair moderation, giving their reasons for opposing conscription. M. A. Farley was chairman, and the speakers were: Messrs, Lowe Cunningham of this city and Mervin Smith of Kitchener. The former got a fairly good hearing, althohis was frequently interrupted by soldiers and others with pertinent questions, which he failed to answer satisfactorily. The audience was not so generous with Smith, however. He had a stormy time of it at the close of his address when the soldiers surrounded him and insisted that he sing "God Save the King," and after a great seem contended to the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, would long be entwined with the Stars of the Union Jack, which, he hoped, was defended to the Union Jack, which, he hoped, wan the first seats, and the returned soldiers were well represented. The enemy is now caught at the entrances to the narrow funnels thru which he must withdraw, and to do so with two million men and 10,000 guns would be for the German army to commit suicide. The British and the French have therefore compelled battle and when they defeat the enemy and drive him from his present lines, as they have already demonstrated their capability of doing, he will suffer irreparable disaster as he hoped, withdraws into Belgium. The so-called Hindenburg line is really the line of Vauban, once drawn by him to protect northwestern France. It existed before anyone ever thought of Von Hindenburg. The British army in its retreat from Mons, passed down one of the natural entrances to France.

These delegates will show the Russian people that Britain has nothing to hide; they will inform them how Britain was driven into the devastating war, and they will throw additional light on Germany's manoeuvres at this juncture to distort the predatory objects she had in forcing war on her peaceful neighbors.

Many matters of interest to the merchants of the district were discussed at the last meeting of the season of the Earlscourt Business Men's Association, held in Earlscourt school, Dufferin street, last evening. President John Waishe occupied the chair.

The need for a postal station for the St. Clair-Oakwood section was discussed. I. Cowan pointing out that the rapid development of the Earlscourt district calls for immediate action by the postal sythorities towards providing better postal facilities. "The mails for the business section are not delivered until the morning is well advanced," said Mr. Cowan. "and the side streets are delivered first."

G. T. Williams thought that Earlscourt residents were entitled to the same consideration as those residing in other districts. It was resolved to write the postmaster of Toronto requesting that a postal station be established in the Earlscourt district at the earliest opportunity, and pointing out the enormous growth of the Earlscourt-Oakwood section in recent years.

Telephone Charges.
The matter of excessive charges for telephone installation outside the city limits immediately north of St. Clair avenue was next discussed. It was claimed that the excessive rates quoted for telephone service prohibit storekeepers and residents availing themselves of the service. A member stated that $75 a year was quoted him recently, altho his neighbor just inside the city limits was paying less than one-half.

T. G. Smithbone suggested that the members residing in the township needing the service circulate a petition for signatures to be presented to the Bell Telephone Company requesting city rates.

Station to residents in the new free delivery zone created by the Dominion Railway Board, dating from May 1, was the cause of much complaint.

Dr. Clyde Robertson suggested that the association take the matter up with the express companies, and failing to receive satisfaction, bring the matter to the attention of the Dominion Railway Board, thru H. A. Newman, B.A.

The Albanian expedition, in a sense, now forms the right wing of the Italian army. Italy has thrust out an immense pincers on the Julian and Albanian fronts, and she has begun slowly to close them. Till the Italians reach Laibach, the fighting will keep heavy, it is expected. Beyond that point the road lies open to Vienna.

Only periodical outbursts of artillery fire from both sides broke the lull on the British front in France yesterday. R. T. STONING OF TRAINS

Report on Incidents in Quebec Minimizes Seriousness of the Situation.

By a Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, May 31.—That soldiers used insulting language and boys replied with stones is the finding of a court of enquiry into the charge that troop trains carrying soldiers bound overseas were stoned at stations in the Province of Quebec. The report was tabled in the house of commons today. The court consisted of Lt.-Col. Wigle, of Windsor, Lt.-Col. Ostell and Major Barclay, of Montreal. The re-port finds that there is no direct evidence of stone throwing, but expresses a belief that there is a foundation for the rumors that a few stones were thrown at Riviere du Loup some time in Oct., 1916. by a number of youths gathered on the station platform. The report states that the stones were thrown in retaliation for insulting re-marks made to them by members of the 132nd Battalion who were passing thru the town.

Another Instance. The court also finds there is some evidence that trains carrying part of the 217th Battalion, men of the army service corps and army medical corps were stoned at Mont Joli on the sixth of April. The distrubance in this case was attributed to remarks made by the soldiers in regard to Quebec's slackness. It was also claimed that some of the soldiers were under the influence of liquor. The court found that some of the men detrained and began asking some of the young men why they were not in khaki. The replies were not satisfactory, and it is claimed that some of the men were in sulted. A group of youths hurled stones in retaliation as the train pulled

"It appears clear to the court says the report, "that there was no hostility or ill-feeling on the part of any class of citizens in Quebec toward returned soldiers or any other soldiers, nor does there appear to bave been any maltreatment of reeurned soldiers by any class of citizens. Some soldiers obtained liquor without any restrictions, some of very inferior quality, and being under its influence they caused some minor disturbances, the blame for which cannot be placed upon the citizens of Quebec." The court expresses the opinion that the sale of liquor to soldiers in the City of Quebec should be discon-
