

cannot decide." Any member of Council feeling a doubt as to the correctness of the decision may call for a division.

20. On the general business of the Council, the sense of the delegates shall be taken in the usual parliamentary method of asking for ayes and noes as described in the foregoing order ; in cases where a division is called for, the vote shall be taken by calling over the roll of affiliated bodies, when the vote of each such body be given by the delegate or delegates present.

21. The President or person occupying the chair shall have a casting vote when there is a tie, but shall not otherwise vote as a member of Council.

22. In the event of the full number of delegates from any affiliated society or institution not being able to attend, the full number of votes to which each such body is entitled shall be given by such delegate or delegates as are present.

23. The responsibility for the appointment and instruction of delegates to the annual meeting rests solely with the bodies appointing, and delegates are required to act in strict accordance with the instructions of the affiliated society or institution which they represent, and on points which may incidentally arise, as far as they can judge in accordance with the spirit of that organization and not as individuals.

24. When any doubt arises on the proper procedure to be followed reference shall be made to Dr. Bourinot's book on Parliamentary Procedure and Procedure at Public Meetings.

V.—AMENDMENT OF STANDING ORDERS.

1. The by-laws may be altered or amended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Committee, notice of proposed change having been given at a previous meeting.
