ROTHESAY BOYS' GYM. DISPLAY

The gymnastic display by the boys of Rothestay collegiate school on Saturday afternoon was carried out with splendid precision and Brigadier-General Macdonnell, who presented the prizes to the boys who had made the highest standing during the season, highly complimented the school. He said the display was the best he had ever seen. He also referred with commendation to the excellent showing which the cadet corps had made in their shooting. There was a big gathering of spectators for the display which took place in the gymnasium and many St. John people were there. The programme given was as follows: General parade by the school; club swinging and games by the juniors;
