THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, JULY 21, 1913

St. John Going Ahead?

You will think so if you visit

WILCOX'S

The hundreds who await it are more then repaid by the very unusual values it presents. St. John people have come to know that Wilcox's ads, mean what they say, so reductions here are reductions

100 Shirtwaists

69c

worth $1.00 for

300 Shirtwaists

worth $1.25 for

89c

Charlotte St. Cor. Union.

The late Lady Clark, who died on Wednesday morning at her home in To-onto, at the age of 76 years. Her hus-eand, Sir William Mortimer Clark was band, Sir William Mortimer Clark was Lieutenant-Governor of Canada from 1908 to 1908. Lady Clark was former-ly Helen Gordon, the daughter of Gilb-ert Gordon of Caithness, Scotland.

DEATH CLAIMS WELL KNOWN

James Coll, one of the oldest and most residents of the city, passed residence, 178 Princes

Timothy Burke.

After a brief illness the death of Timothy Burke occurred Saturday night at his late residence, 105 Douglas avenue, in the 68th year of his age. The deceased has been in failing health since last May.

The late Mr. Burke was one of the oldest and most respected residents of St. John. In his early years he was in the employ of Small & Hatheway, wholesale grocers, and afterwards went into business for 'immself. Some years ago he was appointed inspector of inland revenue for the maritime provinces, which position brought him into lime with people throughout the whole province and also in Newfoundland. He remained in this position until May of this year when he was superannuated. In the year 1877 of the big fare in St. John. Mr. Burke was elected secretary of the Neller fund and his excellent management in this capacity won him widespread praise. During the confiagration that devasted Newfoundland, he was called there as organizer of the relief fund and established it on a splendid working basis after which he returned home. He leaves his wife, who was formerly Miss McPeake, and three sons, John and James, of the C.P.R. employ, and Frank at home. He is also survived by one brother, Dennis, of Ottawa. Rev. J. Burke, of Chicago, is a nephew.

Boston, 1912 20—Mrs. Caroline F. Sutherland in the first of the survived of the survived by one brother, Dennis, of Ottawa. Rev. J. Sutherland in the provinces of the sale event were of the survived by one to province the configuration that at home. He is also survived by one brother, Dennis, of Ottawa. Rev. J. Burke, of Chicago, is a nephew.

Boston, 1912 20—Mrs. Caroline F. Sutherland in the first of the survived by one brother, Dennis, of Ottawa. Rev. J. Sutherland in the province of the survived by one to province of t

Fredericton, July 20—John Futtier died suddenly at his home, this city, early Saturday evening, from heart fail-sisters. The funeral was held at Barnesville on Sunday July 13, the services being conducted by Rev. I. B. Colwell, pastor of the Central Norton Baptist church of which Mr. Norris was a

The man from Yorkshire,

DICTIONARY COURON July 21, 1913 ONLY ONE COUPON REQUIRED

The $4.00 This Dictionary is NOT published by the original pubwers are maps and over 600 subjects beautifully illustrated on back and sides, printed on Bible paper, with red edges the general contents as described elsewhere there are maps and over 600 subjects beautifully illustrated by three-color plates, numerous subjects by monotone, 16 pages of valuable charts in two colors, and the latest Canadian Census. Present at this office only ONE Dictionary Coupon and the

The $3.00

It is exactly the same as the $4.00 book, except in the style of binding—which is in lilustrated birding—which is in lilustrated birding, stamped in gold and black; has same illustrated birding, but all birding—which is in lilustrated birding, stamped in gold and black; has same illustrated birding, but all birding—which is in lilustrated birding, stamped in gold and black; has same illustrated birding, stamped in gold an

PORT OF ST. JOHN

Preserve Labels

Useful for the busy housewife. Simply cut on line

and paste to the jar or bot-

RASPBERRY

STRAWBERRY

BLACKBERRY

GRAPE

BLACK CURRANT

RED CURRANT

BLUEBERRY

APPLE

PEAR

PEACH

PLUM

Arrived Saturday.

FRED FREDERICKSON THROWN FROM TUG AND DROWNED IN HARBOR

A.M. P.M.
High Tide... 1.27 Low Tide ... 7.58
Sun Rises... 5.02 Sun Sets 7.58
Time used is Atlantic standard, Frederick Frederickson, aged 35 years Mr. Coll was the son of Dennis Coll, of St. Patrick street met a sudden death who came to this country from County Tyrone, Ireland, in 1842, and opened a soap and candle factory in this city.
James was born the year of his parents' arrival in St. John. He received his education in the public schools, after which he entered the employ of Doherty & McTavish, dry goods mrchants, where he remained for nine years. He then became associated with his father. A few years later, with his brother, Mich ael, he succeeded to his father's business. In June, 1872, he married Miss Augusta Doherty and they had six children. Mrs. Coll and two sons, Owen G, in the west, and Edward B, with W.
H. Thorne & Co., survive.

In his younger days Mr. Coll took a lively interest in amateur theatricals and belonged to a thespian organization known as the St. John Dramatic Club.
He was connected with the board of school trustees for some time and had a host of friends who will regret to hear of his death.

After a brief illness the death of
Timothy Burke.

After a brief illness the death of
Timothy Burke.

MPRESSIVE FUNERAL OF who came to this country from County in the harbor at an early hour on Sun-

TAKEN OFF UNINJURED

e helping to place number four the new government wharf in the new government what in the new government what in the new government what in the new government wharf in the new government what is not the new government what in the new government what is not the new government which is not the new government where the new Boston, July 20—Mrs. Caroline F. Sutherland, wife of Thomas W. Sutherland, freight trainmaster of the Boston & Maine Railroad, died at her home in Somerville, Saturday. Mr. Sutherland is a native of Shediac and a half-brother of Dr. Frederick Welling, of Andover, who died suddenly recently.

While helping to place number four crib of the new government wharf in position at Sand Point early Sunday morning the towboat Betty D., former ly the Dunbar, rammed No. 3 crib and forced her way clear to the top of the wharf, where she overturned and lay on her side with the water flowing in through her funnel. She was taken of later with the assistance of another tug Fredericton, July 20—John Beattey, died today at his home, this city, after a lingering illness. His mother, a widow, two brothers and two sisters survive. The sisters are Mrs. Henry Roafe, of Newburyport (Mass.), and Margaret, at home. The brothers are Malcolm, at home, and Herbert, of Boston. He was about thirty years of age. The funeral will take place at 2.80 p. m. Tuesday.

respected citizen of lower Woodstock, passed away Friday, aged 60 years. Michael McDonald, a highly respected resident of Welsford, died at his home on Saturday. Mr. McDonald was born at Ragged Polnt, Millidgeville, seventysix years ago and removed to Welsford carly in life. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, four sons, a brother and sister.

DEATH OF GEORGE E. NORRIS At Central Norton, on July 11 George E. Norris died at the age of twenty-two years. He was fill about a week with diptheria. He is survived by his parents, Albert and Elizabeth Norris of Barnesville, Kings county, his wife and child, five brothers and four sisters. The funeral was held at Barnesville on Sunday July 18, the services being conducted by Rev. I. B. Colwell, paster of the Central Norton for his control of the charge in this parents, Albert and Elizabeth Norris of Barnesville, Kings county, his wife and child, five brothers and four sisters. The funeral was held at Barnesville on Sunday July 18, the services being conducted by Rev. I. B. Colwell, paster of the Central Norton for the charge in his precular songes in his pasters. The funeral was held at Barnesville on Sunday July 18, the services being conducted by Rev. I. B. Colwell, paster of the Central Norton for the charge of the Central Norton for th

Daily Hints For the Cook

WHIPS

Into your individual custard cups put one teaspoon of nice wine or brandy, preferably brandy. Next fill cup one-half to two-thirds full of steamed custard. Next fill cup with whipped cream and add a dot of nice jelly on top. Arrange at 5 o'clock for a 6 o'clock meal so the brandy will have a chance to flavor the other ingredients.

PEACH TAPIOCA Pare and slice enough ripe soft peaches to fill a round glass serving dish one-third full and sprinkle them plentifully with sugar. Wash one-third of a teacup of tapioca and let it soak over night in a little cold water. In the morning put the tapioca in a pint of milk and whire?

sugar, one tablespoon of flour, a pinch of salt and the yolks of two eggs until very light. Then stir it in the tapioca and boil five minutes longer. Butter a pudding dish that is the same size as

C. P. R. APPOINTMENT

A. A. Goodchild is appointed general storekeeper for the lines of the C. P. R. east of Fort William, with headquarters at the Angus Shops, Montreal. This position was held by the late J. Power.

Who is the man from York

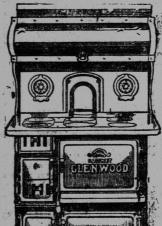

Parlor Furniture

A few moments inspection of our furnishings for the parlor will convince you just where to buy your

Parlor Furniture

We Carry a Good Assortment in all the Latest Shades In Solid Mahogany From $48.00 to $106.00 THREE PRECES In Birch Mahogany From $22.00 to $75.00 PIECES

J. MARCUS - 30 Dock St.

visit a little, but you must get one thousand

Therefore is it not most important to have first of all a high-class economical range on which to prepare your meals, that will save you coal which means $ $ in your pocket, and make your cooking a pleasure for you.

If that is what you want, then come and see Canada's Champion Range "THE GLENWOOD"

the most popular range on the American Continent. We can furnish you with any size, style or design that you may desire. Fancy carved, semi-plain or the mission style. We guarantee to suit the most exact. This celebrated line is all manufactured in St. John. Every range guaranteed. Call and examine our line before purchasing.

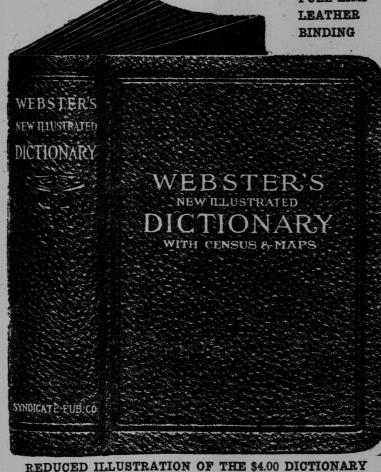

McLEAN, HOLT & CO., LTD. 155 Union St. - J. L. McATITY, Pres., - St. John N. B.

REDUCED TO ONE COUPON

By reason of there now remaining insufficient days of this distribution to permit a reader accumulating a full series of six coupons only ONE coupon need be presented (with the expense bonus amount) to secure the $4.00 Dictionary.

First Aid to Office Employes

The name of Webster's New Standard Dictionary Illustrated, ought to be changed to "Daily Helps for Stenographers and other Office Employees," for the Telegraph and Times Dictionary is a FIRST AID in TIME OF NEED. Every day the stenographer writes a letter in which there is a word or phrase with which so not familiar. Every day an alert office employee will NEED an UNUSUAL word or reference that will make him more valuable to the "more higher up"." The little block hook will do the trick. But there's rectime to learn the "man higher up." The little black book will do the trick. But there's no time to lose—you can get it NOW—for ONLY ONE COUPON and the small expense bonus:

FULL LIMP

Saturday which is July 26th this same Book will cost you $4.00 at the stores

The Telegraph and Times Distribution Plan must be withdrawn on

After Next

Don't let ONE coupon and the small expense bonus stand between you and the chance to own expense bonus, as explained under the dictionary coupon printed on page 2 of this issue.

CLIP THAT COUPON TODAY

This Dictionary has been revised and brought up to the PRES-ENT DATE in accordance with the best authorities.

BOUND LIKE A BIBLE

Don't Wait Minute! Another You'll NEED the Telegraph and Times Dictionary TOMORROW-you need it TODAY.

That OLD dictionary is passe (see Webster's New Standard Dictionary Illustrated).

Don't Put Off Until Tomorrow the Clipping That Should Be Done Today