People who eat Kellogg's
 People in all walks of life eat Kellogg's daily. The doctor, because he has a scientific knowledge of its great food value. The millionaire, because money cannot buy a more delicious breakfast cereal. The athlete, because it is a 90 per cent energy food. Most people eat Kellogg's because of its delectable flavor—altogether unlike that of any other cereal food. 10 cents buys a big package.

Studebaker
A Real Car at a Low Price

The Studebaker-Flanders "20" is first of all a sturdy, handsome car. Your natural pride and the judgment of your neighbors are satisfied. But deeper than appearance—in design, in construction, down into the detail of every cotter pin and lock nut, the Studebaker-Flanders "20" is a splendid automobile. By changing the transmission or using only the sheer necessities of automobile manufacture, we could considerably cheapen it. But then it wouldn't deserve the Studebaker name. Remember that for 60 years the name "Studebaker" has stood for the best that can be built. There are no hidden weaknesses in the Studebaker-Flanders "20." It is all good, a true Studebaker car.

THE GREATEST DOCTOR ON EARTH

Nature is the greatest doctor on earth. When she can't cure it is because she needs aid. Now, most people have an idea that this aid is drugs, and when they get sick or suffer from pain of any kind they proceed to dope their stomachs with the stuff that is sold for medicine. That doesn't help any; in fact, it does a great deal of harm. The dope that you put into your stomach is poison, and it weakens the organs and nerves of your body. What Nature needs is electricity.

When your stomach, kidneys, liver or digestive organs get out of order, it is because they lack the necessary electricity to enable them to perform their regular functions. The breaking down of these organs nearly always causes other trouble. Nature can't cure them, because your body hasn't enough electricity to do the work, so you must assist Nature by restoring this electricity where it is needed.

My Electric Belt does this while you sleep. It saturates the nerves with its glowing power, and these conduct the force to every organ and tissue of your body, restoring health and giving strength to every part that is weak.

Electricity is a relief from the old system of drugging. It does by natural means what you expect drugs to do by unnatural means. It removes the cause of disease, and after the cause has been removed Nature will do the rest.

Your Belt has certainly done me a great deal of good in every way, and I shall always recommend it to any one I know that is in need of it.

ROBT. DICK, Kimberley (Que.)

I suffered severely from Rheumatism three years ago, and procured one of Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belts, which I know has cured me, as I have had no attacks since.

VISIT OF ASQUITH TO DUBLIN

Plans For Premier's Stay In Irish Capital Are Completed

WILL ARRIVE ON JULY 18

Great Meeting That Evening, Followed by Popular Street Demonstration—Irish Women and the Vote—Honor for a Distinguished Catholic Lawyer

(Times Special Correspondence)
 Dublin, June 28.—The arrangements for Mr. Asquith's visit to the city have been completed. Mr. Asquith, accompanied by the Master of Elibank, will arrive in Dublin by mail boat on Thursday, July 18. He will drive from Kingstown to the residence of the Chief secretary in the Phoenix Park and will be the guest of Mr. Birrell during his stay in Dublin. In the early part of the next day Mr. Asquith will pay visits to various public institutions in company with John E. Redmond and Mr. Birrell.

In the evening a great meeting will be held in the Theatre Royal, the largest hall available for such a gathering. Addressing the meeting will be the Chief secretary, Mr. Birrell, and the Master of Elibank. The stage, which will be turned into a platform for the occasion, will be reserved exclusively for Irish and English members of parliament, lord mayors and mayors, and the chairman of county councils. The meeting will be under the presidency of Mr. Redmond, and, in addition to Mr. Asquith's address, speeches will be delivered by Mr. Birrell and the Master of Elibank.

Inasmuch as the accommodation of the theatre will be wholly inadequate to hold many of the people anxious to be present it is understood that after the meeting a great demonstration will be held in the streets. The form which that demonstration will take has not as yet been definitely settled.

The question of the admission of women to the meeting has not yet been decided. The Women's Franchise League have sent a letter to Mr. Asquith requesting him to receive a deputation of Irish women, and the government has agreed to receive a deputation of Irish women, and the government has agreed to receive a deputation of Irish women, and the government has agreed to receive a deputation of Irish women.

CHURCH PARADE AT CAMP SUSSEX

Fine Programme of Sports For Holiday—First Week Very Successful

Sussex, N. B., June 28.—The first week of the annual military camp at Sussex is rapidly passing to a close and it has been marked with success in all respects. In point of numbers the encampment is the largest for years and considering the discipline which has prevailed has been really remarkable. The military police and picket have had practically nothing to do in the spacious camp grounds or in the town and this is a notable feature of the camp of 1912.

It has truly been a "dry" camp thus far. There has been a conspicuous absence of liquor and every possible precaution has been taken to prevent its being procured or brought into the grounds. This fact has materially assisted in the preservation of order. The popularity of the "softer" beverages, lemonade, lime juice etc., has increased a hundredfold if the demand and sale may be taken as a criterion.

Most interest now centres in the programme for Monday which, although a holiday for the general public, will not be observed as such by the citizen soldiers. Regular drill will be participated in throughout the day but after the bugle has blown the retreat at 4 o'clock a broad portion of the lower ground will be enclosed and the programme of sports arranged, carried out, and an glad to say that it will be a success. It has been held until later in the week. It will take place on Wednesday if the assembly will be conducted by the officers of the 8th Hussars is not held on that day, and on Thursday if it be.

The programme of field sports will include the following: 220 yards and 100 yards dash, one mile run, running broad jump, bag race, shot put and hurdle race 120 yards for buglers under fifteen years of age. The unit winning the major number of points will be awarded the field sports silver cup, which is to be kept in final possession and to be captured three consecutive times.

The following is the committee of officers who have arranged the sports: Captain Foster and Major Day, 28th Dragoon; Captain Emmerson and Lieut. O'Connell, 8th Hussars; Col. J. L. McAvity and Captain Miller, 62nd Fusiliers; Lieut. Peat and Captain Hopkins, 67th Regiment; Captain Woodbury and Major Laughlin, 7th Regiment; Colonel Perkins and adjutant, 7th Regiment; Captain T. E. Powers, Signalling Corps No. 8; Lieut. Pearson and adjutant, 7th Regiment, and adjutant and sergeant, Harding, No. 7 C. A. S. C. Captain T. M. McAvity, orderly officer, is chairman of the committee.

There will be other attractions for the holiday as well. The annual picnic of Rev. Father McDermott's church is to be held there and it is also to be a garden party on Dr. McAlister's grounds.

Church Parade.
 On Sunday morning the annual church parade will be conducted on the grounds facing the staff lines. The infantry and cavalry will be drawn up in the form of a hollow square, a gun carriage will be used as a pulpit and music will be furnished by one of the regimental bands.

The Roman Catholic troops in camp, headed by one of the bands, will parade to church in the town to attend mass. In the evening in the "hollow" or camp square as it is known a sacred band concert will be given at 8.15. Tomorrow evening the 62nd and C. A. S. C. will give a band concert in the "hollow" at 8.15.

The annual inspection of the Fusiliers will be held in St. John on Monday, July 2, by Col. W. H. Humphrey, A. G. O. 6th division, for the inspector-general.

Major J. W. S. Black, 8th Hussars, was in charge of the rifle range, to be followed by Major E. O. Steeve, 74th Regiment, next for duty; Lieut. J. H. Peat, 67th Regiment, was orderly M. O. with Lieut. G. G. Gerbett, 28th Dragoon, for duty tomorrow; Major L. R. Murray, 8th Hussars, was medical officer in charge of the rifle range, to be followed by Major E. O. Steeve, 74th Regiment. The brigade guard and picket for duty tonight were furnished by the 74th Regiment, and the 62nd Regiment will be called on for these duties tomorrow.

There are some very clever baseball artists amongst the soldier lads and some snappy contests are played each evening. The "hollow" tonight, for instance, which amongst the regiment or company to which it is attached, and the "coaching" given to the boys of the Army Service Corps was engaged in a game of ball, one of them covering a large porcupine in a tree out far away. Here was a fine chance for fun. The "sharpshooters" of the company took aim in turns with a rifle, but failed to make any impression on the beast, and after several of them had tried their skill in a small boy walked towards them, took aim, and shot the animal dead.

received from Miss Vina Goldstein, representing the Women's Political Association of Victoria, and from the women suffragists of America.

The following resolution was read and carried:

That while expressing no opinion on the general question of home rule, the meeting of delegates from the Irish women's societies and other women's organizations, representing all shades of political and religious opinion, profoundly regretted the proposal to establish a new constitution in Ireland on a purely male franchise, and called upon the government to adopt the home rule bill in committee by the Irish people, and to give effect to the adoption of the resolution which includes women, as the basis of the franchise for the new parliament.

Copies of the resolution were sent to every member of the Liberal cabinet and all the Irish members of parliament.

Distinguished Catholic Lawyer
 Charles A. O'Connor, Irish attorney-general, who has been appointed to the mastership of the rolls, has long been the acknowledged leader of the Irish squires. He has a distinguished career in Trinity College, Dublin, and was auditor of the National Bank, and was also a member of the House of Commons. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1857, to the late time member for Woodstock and private secretary to his father, the Duke of Marlborough, as Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, and his first important political speech, which immediately brought him into prominence in public life.

The new mastership of the rolls is highly popular at the bar, and his first great promotion to the office of solicitor-general was marked by a prolonged outburst of enthusiasm in the law library of the Four Courts, Dublin. Mr. O'Connor is a Catholic, and only one Catholic has filled since the Catholic Emancipation Act, the mastership of the rolls. Sir Michael O'Loughlin, who held the position which had been offered to O'Connor from 1855 till his death in 1882.

A novel experiment in teaching domestic science in cottages has been carried out in Ireland on the principle that to attempt to teach the poor household management with utensils and apparatus they can never have in their own homes is utterly useless. The committee of agriculture and technical instruction in Queens county rented a cottage in the poorest quarter of Mountmellick for the purpose of teaching the simplest forms of cooking, washing, sewing, and the utilization of material which is usually thrown away as worthless to the girls and women of the neighborhood. Vegetables were also grown by the students on a small plot of land. The success of the experiment was entirely due to the fact that everything taught was such as would enable them to become capable housewives on the most limited resources.

MAKING ESCAPE OF CRIMINAL HARDER

 his son was inside. He called the police. The door was forced open, and the young woman was found dead in the bed with a bullet in her head. The young man was lying on the floor with two ugly wounds in his chest. He was able to speak and he was conveyed hurriedly to a hospital. It is supposed that after a scene between Albert Girard and Fred that young man's life may be saved.

Marriage and the Courts
 French courts and judges are sometimes paradoxical. Marriages are diminishing in number, yet the courts do not encourage matrimonial agents. The courts are always very well and commendable, but make a business out of match-making does not meet with their approval. If the agent, after marriage the bridegroom declines to pay a fee that he had explicitly or vaguely promised, it is quite another matter. Has a matrimonial agent the right or has he not, to appeal to the law for obtaining payment of a matrimonial commission? This is a question which has frequently been mooted in French law courts.

In some places the transaction is considered as lawful and binding, and in others it is condemned as being against public policy.

A court at Lyons recently decided that a contract by which a matrimonial agent was to be entitled to a certain percentage of the dowry of the bride was valid, and payment was ordered. Immediately afterwards a Paris court decided exactly the contrary, holding that such a contract was immoral, and therefore could not be enforced by law. commune, and furnishing the "maire", and the offices for use.

The problem at issue is novel. Is the "maire" of Gravelbourg to be transferred to the village or is a new commune to be created by giving the village the official title, or is the knot to be cut out by declaring the will null and void?

NORTON GRIFFITHS' IMMIGRATION MAN IN ST. JOHN AGAIN

W. Percy Thomson, the member of the Norton Griffiths Company's staff who is particularly interested in the matter of immigration into Canada, arrived in the city yesterday after several days spent in Montreal. Mr. Thomson said last evening that he had not yet had the opportunity to make sufficient study of New Brunswick farm conditions to enable him to make a report to the head of the company, having visited only St. Stephen and vicinity. He said that he would go to Fredericton on Tuesday and arrange an itinerary covering a large portion of the province after consultation with the provincial authorities.

Mr. Thomson expects to be in New Brunswick until the return of W. Burton Stewart, managing director of the Norton Griffiths Company of Canada, in July.

TALKED ON LABOR MATTERS
 A largely attended meeting of the workers of the city in the Longshoremen's hall, Water street, last evening was addressed by J. E. Walters, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. Mr. Walters spoke of the advantages of the international movement as compared to the purely Canadian organization and gave figures to show the greater benefits from the former. Mr. John and will be entertained by the members of the local Trades and Labor Congress to a buckboard drive about the city on Monday. He will leave for Fredericton on Tuesday to continue his organization work.

DOCTORS COULD NOT HELP MY KIDNEYS

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Me"

MR. GEO. W. BARKLEY
 Chesherville, Ont., Jan. 23th, 1911.

"For over twenty years I have been troubled with kidney disease and the doctors told me they could do me no good. They said my case was incurable and I would suffer all my life. I doctored with different medical men and tried many advertised remedies, but there was none that suited my case. Nearly a year ago I tried "Fruit-a-tives". I have been using them nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured. I have no trouble now with my kidneys and I give "Fruit-a-tives" the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible. I am seventy-six years old and am in first class health."
