DIVIDED OVER IRISH PROSPECTS

Opinions on Effect of Latest Note Vary.

Some London Papers Pessimistic, Others Hopeful That a Conference Will Yet be Arranged—Ulster Parliament in Session.

London, Sept. 20.—A decided diversity in view is prevalent here today regarding the effect of the latest telegram of Eamonn De Valera to Premier Lloyd George...

The Pall Mall Gazette for example uses the heading "A Rupture Perceived" while the Evening Standard says "The Door is Not Closed, but Pessimism Prevails."

The Evening News on the other hand, speaks of "Progress to Irish Peace; De Valera Clears the Air" while the Westminster Gazette headlines its article, "Position Not Seriously Worsened."

Belfast, Sept. 2.—The Belfast Telegraph says today that a Sinn Fein camp of 500 men has been established at Drumahaire, county Down, six miles from the Ballykinler internment camp...

Still Hope. London, Sept. 20.—Premier Lloyd George had before him today at Gairloch, Scotland, a Sinn Fein suggestion that representatives of the British cabinet and Sinn Fein delegates in a conference untrammelled by conditions...

The latest note exchanged between the premier and Eamonn De Valera, says, "I am glad to hear that you are in Scotland, and I am glad to hear that you are in Scotland, and I am glad to hear that you are in Scotland..."

As viewed here the latest Sinn Fein note was conciliatory in character, and it seemed to place upon the premier the choice of holding a free conference or insisting that southern Ireland formally express its allegiance to the British crown...

It was generally believed that the note sent to Lloyd George yesterday marked a step which would tend to relieve the situation of some of the early threatened to end any hope of an early settlement of the Irish controversy.

The premier is rapidly recovering from the indisposition which he contracted last week before replying to Mr. De Valera's note...

At the resumption of the investigation by the grand jury last night, Dr. Russell, physician to Miss Rappé during her fatal illness, was called to explain why an autopsy had been performed following her death without request being made by county officials...

Alleged "Frame up." Miss Joyce Clark and Reggy Morely, and Dr. G. Kingstone, were called, District Attorney Brady said, in connection with a report intimating possible financial interest of witnesses in the trial.

At the conclusion of the session, Mr. Brady issued a statement in which he declared that it has been disclosed that these three witnesses had discussed the probability of "making money out of the Arbutkule cases by framing" Miss Joyce Prevost, a most important prosecution witness.

The county grand jury early today adjourned until next Monday night its investigation of alleged tampering with prosecution witnesses.

ANXIOUS ABOUT FIVE BALLOONS IN BENNETT RACE Brussels, Sept. 20.—Tidings from five of the great balloons which started from here on last Sunday in a race for the James Gordon Bennett trophy were being anxiously awaited here this morning.

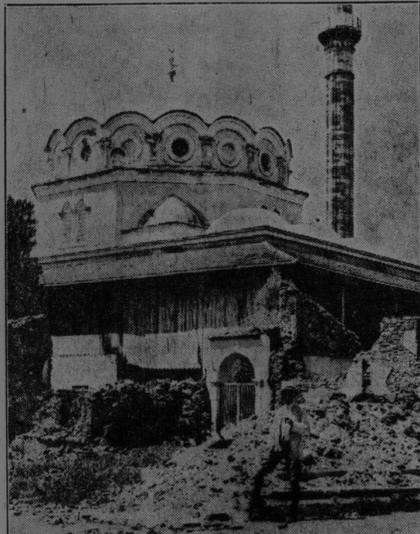

The prevailing winds on Sunday, Sunday night and Monday carried the fourteen balloons over southern England and Wales, and there was some danger that some of the missing aeronauts had been carried out over the Atlantic.

One of the five balloons which had not reported was the Belgica, piloted by the Belgian, and G. J. Andrus, of the United States. The others were piloted respectively by Armbruster, of Switzerland, La Brousse, of Belgium and Jules Dubois and Binamont, of France.

The honors for the greatest distance covered by the balloons which have reported, appeared today to be divided between those piloted by Ville, of Italy, and Spencer, of England, which came to the earth near other on the extreme western coast of Wales. The City of St. Louis, a U.S. entry, had not reported officially, but word was received that it had landed in Northwestern England.

CUT IN WAGES. Montreal, Sept. 20.—The head office of the Canadian Explosives, Ltd., in this city, today announced a reduction in wages in some of their plants of from 10 to 12 1/2 per cent, to into effect immediately.

"FRAME UP" IN THE ARBUCKLE CASE?

Allegation in Reference to Some Evidence.

Authorities Making Wide Inquiry Into Liquor Feature of Tragedy in San Francisco—Grand Jury Investigation.

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—Liquor served by Arbutkule at his party where, it is charged, Miss Rappé suffered injuries from her host which resulted in death, is to be the subject of investigation by a U. S. district court grand jury here tonight.

Robert B. McCormack, assistant U. S. district attorney for the prosecution for liquor cases, announced that witnesses would be called who were guests at the alleged revel.

Mr. McCormack will not, he said, seek indictments at this time, waiting until other federal officials have completed investigations now going on in the motion picture colonies of Los Angeles and Hollywood.

The federal attorney intimated that seven or more persons were under investigation. He has examined numerous witnesses, but has refused to make their names public.

At the resumption of the investigation by the grand jury last night, Dr. Russell, physician to Miss Rappé during her fatal illness, was called to explain why an autopsy had been performed following her death without request being made by county officials...

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I suppose there are some of your neighbors to whom you will not speak except on Sunday until after the elections."

"Me?" said Hiram. "No, sir—I don't do it quite that kind. If my feller don't want to vote my way I ain't a-gonna set fire to his house or put up with him being arrested for being a loonatic. I may call him a few names when we're in the shop—but no hard feelings. We ain't quite so bad as you make 'em out to be when the two parties and a man get the color of his hair. I kin remember when you used to be a grit or a tory—or they'd want you your head examined. Now we got grits an' Tories an' Unionists an' farmers an' labor an' Independents an' I don't know how many more. It ain't no use to get mad about what the other feller thinks—an' me an' my neighbors ain't a-gonna make fools of ourselves. We're neighbors an' we got to go on livin' together just the same after the hollerin' is all done with. They kin call me a damned fool if they want to, an' mebbe I'll think up a few nice things to say about them afore it's over—but I'll all be between friends—yes, sir."

New Members Not Sworn in Until Return of Governor-General to Toronto—Big Liberal Time in Toronto with Mackenzie King.

MAY DROP CHARGE AT CITY SCOWS

Revenue from Swimming Fees Less Than $100—A Falling Off in Attendance, but Good Results Reported.

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—There will be no announcement in regard to Premier Meighen's reorganized cabinet today and possibly not until Thursday. The premier said that the new members will not be sworn in until the governor-general returns from Kingston.

The governor-general is expected in Ottawa on Thursday. Liberal Leader in Toronto. Toronto, Sept. 20.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal opposition in the house of commons, and Hon. W. C. Fielding, former minister of finance, with other Liberal stalwarts arrived today to open, at West Toronto tonight, the party's campaign for the general elections.

The Liberal leader reached Toronto this morning rather unexpectedly, as the local reception committee's arrangements provided for the official reception at the West Toronto station tonight. Mr. King appeared to be in excellent fettle and intimated that it was the intention of the party to open the campaign, not with a preliminary skirmish, but with very heavy bombardment and general action.

Mr. King will spend the day quiet in the city. It is expected that there will be some conferences with local party leaders, with a view to securing the strongest possible Liberal candidates to contest the seats in "Tory Toronto." The programme for the reception tonight calls for a big parade previous to the meeting.

SAY BREAD CHEAPER IN MONTREAL THAN IT IS DOWN HERE

Montreal, Sept. 20.—Several prominent bankers of the city said today that at present there was no prospect of a reduction in the price of bread. In response to the questions as to whether prices would effect local prices, they replied that the same loaf that is selling here for 12 and 13 cents, is selling in Montreal for 11. That is the pound and a half loaf.

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—(Canadian Press)—Replying to a telegram from C. G. Macdonald, secretary-treasurer, Dominion Command G. W. V. A., Colonel C. W. Peck, V. C., M. P., in effect denies the report that he had resigned from the Canadian Legion, an organization of returned soldiers recently formed in Toronto.

Colonel Peck writes that he has been unable to attend the conference, but that he has received no communication from anybody or association. Recent dispatches were that Colonel Peck had accepted the presidency.

AT LITTLE RIVER

Rev. William Lawson has been appointed pastor of the Little River Methodist church, which is to be held on Sunday, Sept. 23. His old friends will be glad to have him so near the city.

Little River is growing and with the developments at East St. John will grow still more rapidly. Mr. Lawson's daughter, May, is teacher of the Little River school, and it is about to have another department added. The upper part of the building is being fitted up as a classroom. The chairman of the school board is John Tonge, and Mr. Lawson recalls that thirty-three years ago, when he was pastor of Carmarthen street church there came to his home one morning John and Jarvis Tonge and Will Rushon, with a letter from his brother in Manchester. The Tonge brothers remained in St. John, where Jarvis was accidentally killed in the following year.

John Tonge is now one of the live wires of the growing community at Little River. His daughter Lacy is engaged with great success as a concert singer in New York.

WILD TIME OVER N. Y. "AUCTION"

"Mr. Zero" Has to Abandon His Plans.

Police Use Night Sticks to Break Up Crowds Attracted by Boston Man's Efforts to Hold a "Slave Sale" of Jobs.

New York, Sept. 20.—Blocked by police in his plans to feed and later sell members of New York's jobless army at a "slave auction" last night, Urban LeDoux remained in retirement today. Fear that further clashes with the police would result in bloodshed and possible loss of life, prompted him to call off all plans contemplated for any further assembly of the unemployed.

"I do not want trouble," said LeDoux, "I am trying to avoid it. I know the temper of the men. I have talked with them. I have seen the police and I know their temper. I know there would be a terrible clash and some one would be killed."

LeDoux called off his proposed auction yesterday afternoon, after the police had convinced him by their vigorous methods in preventing him from distributing buns to the jobless and from holding a mass meeting in a hall he had rented, that they meant business.

Nevertheless, several hundred of the unemployed men and thousands of curious spectators were on hand at Bryant Park at the hour originally set for the auction. Police reserves struggled with the crowd for more than an hour, wielding nightsticks on recalcitrant heads, before they were able to restore anything resembling order.

Then a column of the unemployed broke through the police lines and paraded to Central Park where another crowd was attracted by impromptu speakers. The demonstrators fled from the park upon the appearance of police reserves, assembling in the street again, however, for another march.

They marched down Broadway with the procession dwindling rapidly. By the time the column reached Madison Square Garden, it had shrunk to about fifty men, who joined other homeless men sleeping on the park benches.

LeDoux announced today that he would in a few days a community center at St. Mark's in the Bowery, operating a barber shop, cobbler shop, and clothing repair departments to help jobless make themselves more presentable in their quest for work. An employment bureau also will be opened.

New York, Sept. 20.—Lloyd George distributed meal tickets to forty hungry followers and announced he would march to Bryant Park and again try to hold his auction. He said he would continue to carry on his work among the hungry and homeless in a legal way. He declared that by feeding the jobless he was keeping them from becoming violent.

SAY IT DESIGNS TO DISRUPT G. W. V. A.

Strong Resolution of Ottawa Command Against Proposed Amalgamation.

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—That the proposed amalgamation, under the title of the "Canadian Legion," of certain of the returned soldier organizations of Canada, was only a disguise to disintegrate the G. W. V. A., the building of a political machine in place thereof, and the absorption of the entire organization, property and assets of the G. W. V. A. under another name and under the guidance of those who have long sought the disruption of the G. W. V. A. by fair means and foul, was affirmed by a resolution unanimously passed at a well attended meeting of the Ottawa command and G. W. V. A. last night.

It further resolved "That this branch of the G. W. V. A. re-affirms its determination to carry on as it has during the last five years under its original name in the interests of the ex-servicemen and dependents, believing this service to be a sacred trust of the G. W. V. A. of Canada to be the competent, tried, trustworthy, logical medium to that end."

ADVERTISES FOR WORK AS MAKER OF WINE AT HOME

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—A new profession has appeared in San Francisco. "An enologist" is defined as a person thoroughly experienced in the making of wine. His advertisement reads: "Since the law allows you to make 200 gallons of grape juice for your own family's use, let an expert enologist make it for you at your own residence, avoiding poor results and wasting money. Start now before grapes go too high."

Mahone, N. S., Sept. 20.—Mrs. Charles Ernst of this town was dangerously injured and several others more or less seriously hurt when an auto in which they were driving topped over a twenty foot embankment at Indian Point last night. Physicians hope for her recovery although she is yet unconscious.

There is Always Someone to Tear Up New Pavement

As soon as a new pavement is laid on one of the city streets the people whose business takes them along that thoroughfare begin to figure how long it will be before somebody comes along and starts to dig holes in it for some reason or another.

Commissioner Prink, coming down King street this morning, halted abruptly and gazed in apparent displeasure at a trio of men, guarded by a rectangle of ropes, each corner surmounted by a red flag, who were chopping a square patch out of the smooth surface which his department had just laid. It was a telephone company crew starting some work around one of their man holes.

"That's not the only one," remarked the commissioner to a Times reporter. "Only a few days after we finished the asphalt paving in Princess street this morning, a crew from the gas works started to dig their way through it. And last week the city water department were compelled to pound a big hole in the new Prince William street pavement opposite the post office."

"I will say this for the telephone company," added the commissioner, "that when they are obliged to disturb a pavement they return it to its original condition or pay the bill if the city has to do the work."
