

experience teaches us the same) that "God is light and in Him is no darkness at all," and a manifestation of this Divine light is given to every man, to lead him out of the misery of his fallen nature, into the glorious light of the Gospel of the Eternal Son of God. If we do not yield to the offered terms of Divine Mercy but give ourselves over to walk in the paths of unrighteousness, we shall surely find in the end that we have walked in the broad road that leads to destruction. It takes careful watching on every hand to avoid the very appearance of evil. Our Lord said to His disciples, "Take ye heed, watch and pray : for ye know not when the time is..... And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.." Then what manner of men ought we to be walking in the path of holiness, that our lives may correspond with the profession we are making before the world. Every act of obedience to the manifestations of divine truth gives us additional strength to wage a successful warfare against the enemies of our soul's peace.

Then, dear Friends, press forward to obtain the prize which is found in Christ Jesus our Lord, who is our sufficiency in every time of trial.

Your Epistle, with those from other Yearly Meetings, was read to our comfort and satisfaction.

Our Yearly Meeting this year was better attended than usual, and in some of our younger members an increasing interest was manifest by their serious deportment during its several sittings.

In a feeling of thankfulness to the Father of all our sure mercies, who has enabled us to transact the business of this Yearly Meeting in much harmony and love, we bid you farewell, as brethren of the same household of faith.

Signed on behalf of the meeting.

LEVI BOWLES, Clerk.
