

MATRICULATION EXAMINATION.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1897, AT 9 A.M.

Subjects.—Greek—Anabasis I. and Grammar.

Latin—Cæsar, Book I., Vergil, Aeneid I., and Grammar and easy Composition.

English—Dictation, Grammar, Composition, Outlines of English History.

Mathematics—Euclid, Books I., II. and III.

Algebra—(inclusive) Quadratic Equations.
Arithmetic.

A paper in French will also be set on the Grammar and easy sentences into English.

Free Tuition, worth $50 a year, is offered to the best candidate who shall obtain a two-thirds aggregate and passes in all subjects, (resident students preferred.)

Reid Scholarship, $80 a year, for three years, offered at this Examination in 1897; the sons of clergymen in the Diocese of Quebec have a certain preference in this award.

In June, 1898, and afterwards, in the Latin and Greek papers, easy sentences for translation into those languages, based on the prose author, will be given.

Matriculation in 1898 begins—

Monday, June 20.

Monday, September 12.

SPECIAL SUBJECTS FOR SESSION, 1897-8, WITH DATES :

Prince of Wales' Medal.—Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 11 'of Classical Honours, with Lucan Pharsalia I. (Heitland and Haskins), and Sophocles, Antigone (Jebb) (June 11).

General Nicolls' Scholarship.—Nos. 1-8 in Mathematical Group B, with Differential Calculus, (June 13).

Jasper Nicolls' Scholarships.—To be announced.

Harrison Prize.—Pastoral Visitation—its uses and abuses, with practical suggestions as to the methods to be used in making it effective. (All sources from which aid is drawn, in this and all other essays, to be carefully indicated), (Oct. 1, 1897).

Mackie Essay, Latin :—"Urbis Romae Vicissitudines."

English :—Any one of the four longest English reigns, (June 5, 1898).