The attention of the Committee has been called to the supply of Scriptures to the soldiers composing the Foreign Legion who are now, or may be hereafter, in this garrison, and means will be taken to furnish this supply. German Bibles and Testaments are those which will most probably be required, and should the demand be to any extent there is no doubt that the parent Society, to whom application will be made, will most readily furnish a grant for this purpose.

Your Committee before closing this Report would advert with sincere regret to the demise of their venerable President, the late Hon. Henry H. Cogswell, which took place during the last year. Mr. Cogswell has been officially connected with this Auxiliary ever since its commencement in the year 1813, first as Treasurer, and afterwards as President, and during the whole period he has ever exhibited the deepest interest in its progress. His last public act in connection with it was to welcome to our shores the Deputation sent to us by the parent Society, and it was a source of gratification to him that he had lived to witness the fiftieth anniversary of that noble institution in whose cause he had been so long engaged.

Your Committee would now close this report, and in doing so they would call attention to the happy circumstances in which this colony is placed amid all the commotions of the present day. If we are spared the horrors of war and share not the afflictions which have fallen upon other lands, let us look up with gratitude to that great source whence all our blessings flow, and let us not forget that if we have received much, it is our duty to impart to others, and that one of the
