

VOL. XLV.

E VARIAS SUMENDUM EST OPTIMUM .- Cic.

$2.50 PER ANNUM. IN ADVANCE

Man. The human mind, that lofty thing ! The palace and the throne Where reason sits a scoptered king And breathes its judgment, tone ! Yet, who with silent steps can trace The borders of that haunded place, Not in bits workness com

Nor in his weakness own That mystery and marvel bind That lofty thing—the human mind?

Tho human heart, mat restless thing-The tempted and the tried ; The joyous and the suffering— The source of pain and pride, The seat of love—the lair of hate ;

Self stung, self-defied ; And yet we hall thee as thou art, Thou restless thing-the human heart !

The human soul-that startling thing,

The human soul-- that starting thing, Mysterious and sublime ! The angel skeping on the wing, Worn by the scoff of time ; The beautiful - the velled—the bound ; The earth-entbralled, the glory-crowned

The smitten in its prime ; From heaven, in tears, to earth it stole, That startling thing-the human soul!

And such is man ! Ob, ask of him, The erring, but forgiven, If o'er his vison, drear and dim, The wrecks of time are driven

If pride or passion, in their power, Can stem the tide or turn the hour, Or stand in place of heaven?

-1

He bands the brow, he bows the knee, Creator, God, to none but Thee.

THE ETCHIN DIAMONDS.

Arthur Stangate, attorney-at-law, was my brother. He had succeeded to my father's business, and no name was more esteemed and trusted in all Runnington, and it was a rich and import ant place. My brother's offices were in the town, two miles distant, but he did the town, two miles distant, but he do slmost as much business among the gentry at his own private house. Most of the great folks employed him; but his best client was Sir Etchin Eck ford, a cidwant Indian judge, very wealthy, and the possessor of some rare and costly jewels, known in this coun-try as the Etchiu diamonds. Their name even makes me shudder now.

One evening, as Arthur was preparing to return to his office, where important business would detain him all night. Sir Etshin's groom left a parcel, with -note. The latter stated that the former contained the famous Etshin diamonds contained the famous Etchin diamonds which their owner thought safest to en-trust to Arthur's care, as he had been unexpectedly called to London. "I don't care what deeds they leave with me," said my brother; "but I don't like such trusts as these. Still, I suppose I must keep them." Of course he could not send them back : so taking the parcel, he at once

SAINT ANDREWS, NEW BRUNSWICK, NOVEMBER 13, 1878. house, and I'm sure Jenkins is their went and came at fitful intervals, and I had a painful sense of smothering or "Burglars!" I cried. Then the "Burglars!" I cried. Then the thought of the face flashed across me. "Gracious powers!" I exclaimed; "they, are after the Etchin diamonds!" I saw it all. The groom's errand had been divined; my brother's absence was known, and, by Jankins' treacherous aid, the place was being attacked. I dropped stanned on the bed. Then I started up. At any cost—even life—the diamonds intrusted to Arthur must be saved. Hurriedly I dressed, and while doing so, heard the soft sound of persons mov-for they believe the box is in the study, and it will take them long to discover their mistake." Opening the window, I got out on the veranda. How fearfully it sloped! Could I do it? Yes, by it stoped ! Could 1 do it? I zes, by pressing my feet against the gutter. Slowly I went, foot by foot, until I reached Arthur's window. My heart leaped as I found it unfastened. Quick-ly I entered, opened and relocked the iron safe, and with the diamonds, more slowly and with greater difficulty, re-turned turned Reaching my own room I did not enter; for what could two helpless women do against strong, evil men, bent on plunder? Indeed, I ordered Jane to tear a sheet into threads, having attach-ed which to the box, I bade her lower it to me, after I had descended by the trellis. She did as I directed, then joining me, we carried the box between us as we ran from the house.

We had not gone a dozen yards be fore the dread of pursuit and having the diamonds wrested from us possessed

"Jane," I said, "this will never do. Let us make for the hollow oak. We can put the box in that ; they'll never find it before help comes." Hastening in the direction together, we managed to raise the box high enough to reach the hole, and I toppled it in. It fell with a heavy thud ; I knew it was safe. I then told Jane to run to Hawthorne's, the nearest house, arouse the people, and bring some of the male servants back. She wanted me to go with her, but I dared not leave the neighborhood of the tree, lest any mis-erable chance should occur of the burgof course he could not send them back; so taking the parcel, he at once proceeded to his study to look it in the iron safe. I went with him, and with s woman's christigt and love for jewelry, besought a peep at the gems before they were put away. Arthur, the best brother in the world, instantly removed the paper cover people. If it is necessary to use the handker-chief sonorously, leave the room introduce the gentleman to the lady, the elder. An exhibited a big perform-ing bear in the streets of Weldon, N. C, and got so many pennies that he was tempted to get drunk. The bear to show what may be done. He sug-gested that the objects which should An Italian exhibited a big perform-ing bear in the streets of Weldon, N. C, and got so many pennies that he was tempted to get drunk. The bear had been sourely muzzled, but the showman, made daring by drink, re-moved that sategraard. The bear to show what may be done. He sug-gested that the objects which should nnless the gentleman is considerably the elder. It is show what may be done. He sug-gested that the objects which should claim attention were the planting of trees along the streets, the oversight of fight with the providence of them. Through the blood in every vein turned cold. With Jenkins there were three of them. Through the less sacred than a marriage with ceremony. If ycu meet a gentleman friend with a strange lady on his arm, raise your hat ing it before help came. Do not call a man a liar unless you Twice, thrice, they approached so have a lump in your throst and are sure three. Committees the providence of the sance of the second the strange lady on the strange lady on his arm, raise your hat the formation of the formation of the formation of the second the massive Indian fashion, while many of the diamonds were yet uncut. One by one, bracelets, bangles, necklets, Arthur lifted, and fashed in the ismp-light before my dazzled vision. He was holding a superb emerald and diamond necklet in his hand, for my ad-mination when hand, es and discovered me. With a cry I endeavored to fly, but people unless you are invited to the wedding or reception.-Jay Charlton.

* A Battle of Boa Constrictors.

flung you into the lake ; but they are all captured !"

aptured !" It was a considerable time before I to accept this for your bravery in preserving the Etchin diamonds.

Good Advice and Good Manners. Much jewelry is vulgar.

Do not smack while eating. Do not cut your nails in public. Do not run after famous people. Do not breathe hard while eating. Feeing waiters is paying blackmail.

Serve vegetables on separate plates. Cheese should be eaten with a fork. Unsweetened coffee cures bad breath A man's dress should not be remarka-

Do not give mere friends costly pres nts.

Short nails make the finger-tips grow In going up and down stairs precede

There is too much promiscuous kiss-her feet out in company. ' Some men unpleasantly comb their

Andrews Standard

in 1880. ported last year 126,000,000 yards, while the amount in 1871 was but 18,000,000.

two or three tight coils around the limb, arched its neck, and with lightning-like flashings of its tongue shot forth its head and buried one of its fangs in the Hurriedly I dressed, and while doing so, heard the soft sound of persons mov-ing in the house. "Jane," I said, having explained all to the faithful girl, "I must get Sir Etchin's diamonds." "How, miss? If you go into the passage they'll murder you." "True; therefore I must get out by the window. They will not hear me, for they believe the box is in the study, and it will take them long to discover one persons emigrated from Switzer-land lasf year for countries beyond the seas; 1,027 of them went to North, pulled out tant by the weight that it could not shake off, and its jaws were could not shake off, and its jaws were seas; 1,027 of them were to South wrenched wide apart. It seemed that it either lacked the instinct to release itself of its coils on the limb, or was prevented ninety-one to Central, and 244 to Sonth America, and 117 to Australia. Geneva from so doing by the strain. The other snake, evidently saffering from the furnished no returns.

A Spatish paper states that from the beginning of the Cuban insurrection up to the month of January last 133,555 Spanish soldiers died in the hospitals from wounds or disease, and 12,500 on the fields of battle ; 37,726 were dis-charged and shown 100 000 insurgents writhing in poin, with its tail on the floor and its body and neck squirming in the air. Occasionally it would raise its head as if to strike the other in the neck, but was not observed to do so. At last one of the attendants opened the door, and with a stick raised up the charged, and about 100,000 insurgents were either killed in battle or shot after lower snake in such a way that it manbeing made prisoners. aged to wriggle off. The other snake then dropped to the floor. It appeared to be suffering greatly, and there was fear that it might die. The bitten enake cisco has been lately reported as 32,000, including 7,000 servanis. Of cigar makers there are 5,000, of tailors, 3,000 ; of boot and shoemakers, 2,800 ; launfersional men, 1,000; professional gam-blers, 1,400; peddlers, 2,500; while the rest are fishermen, laborers and miscel-laneous. There are 2,000 women. luxurious, in a well-kept country town. James Miller started from Obio with his family for the far West, traveling in more attractive and more healthful have done much in some places, especially in In Missouri one of the horses died, and A pink ribbon under the chin makes a pale woman look brighter. Always take the last piece of anything -there is supposed to be more. The lady of the house should receive arrested, convicted and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment. Lately his term expired, and he resumed his jour-ney, his family having lived in the neighborhood of the prison while wait-ing for him to be released.

Village Improvement.

Always take the last piece of mything —there is supposed to be more. The lady of the house should receive guests at a formal reception. Never pull your watch out in com-pany unless you are familiar with the pany of the source of the

TIMELY TOPICS.

An international exhibition is to be held at Buenos Ayres, South America,

Of cotton cloth the United States ex-

The California grape crop this sea-son is the largest ever gathered, and Progress. They who walk upon the upland Must expect to feel the breeze, All the warring winds of nature, Suns that melt, and snows that f

NO. 46

But how great the compensation In the fairer, broader view; In the clearer air surrounding, In the wide expanse of blue.

There is little worth the doing

That is very easy done ; Wealth that comes without the wooing Is of little worth when won.

And the mind makes progress slowly In a lazy neighborhood, Where the intellect is deadened For the want of proper food.

Striking steel with wand of feathers Never brings the glowing sparks ; And the spirit's growth and progress Eyer hears conflicting marks.

Gain is won by swift pursuing Many aim that never fire ; It is rising, living, doing, That will bring the heart's desire.

-Clara B. Heath.

Items of Interest.

A wide spread evil-A big umbrella in a crowd.

A hen is not joking when she is in 'er-nest-Not much.

The Western Whangdoodle, Tough Citizen, Smooth Coon, Sunday Loafer and Baby Mine are the names of papers published in Kentucky.

The Chinese have a law that any military officer making his house a place of gambling shall be cashiered and forever debarred from holding public office.

The editor wrote "somebody need hanging," and it came down on the proof-sheet, "somebody needs hug-ging." The printer was thinking about his girl.

"When a man's chin whiskers turn gray before the hair on his head do it shows which part of him has done the most work," observes a philosophical exchange.

The remains of a prehistoric village on piles have been discovered in the Barmsee (a small lake in the Bavarian mountains), much like the Swiss lake dwellers' habitations.

A writer in Land and Water tells A writer in Land and Water tells how an exasperating donkey was kept from braying by a weight appended to his tail, for it seems that a donkey always must lift that appendage when braying

It is said that the roots of the redclover plant will reach a depth in the earth of nearly five feet? That those of Indian corn will decend seven feet, those of onions three feet, those of lucerne fifteen feet, and of rye, beaus and garden peas seven feet.

THE BAKER. I'm a well-to-do sort of a loafer, Though day after day I knead bread, did not seem to suffer much. the lady. Girls who part their hair on the side A formal call is long if it lasts over half an hour. Never take bits out of your mouth Never take bits out o ing in this country. Associations for promoting the various means by which the village can be made wounds and the strain on its skin, was

REMEDY MEDICINE ropsy and all diseases of ler and Urinary Or edy is purely vegetable an er it for you OF VESIA ia, Indigestion Sick Headache.

MES, for coughs and solds sell a Household Article. s, &c. Price list free. Ad. Gun Works, Pittsburg, Pa. w to Make it. News Agents t KONGE, St. Louis, Mo. tents Wanted-36 best be world; one sample free, ONSON, Detroit, Mich. nvassing for the Firesid d Outfit Free. Address OKERY, Augusta, Maine ne year, to begin work, at ry fair. Business first class. cil Outfits. What costs d or 50 cts. Catalogue free 2 Wash'n St., Boston, Mas.

Skin Diseases. Thoy Lowest Prices Do not full r.F E Marsh, Quincy, Mich.

or Agents Women

$50 is made in one ELL AUGER. Auger

HLES, St. Louis, Mo

Sure relief ASTHMA. Price 35 cts. ASTHMA. B. by mail. Stowell & Co. Charlestown, Mass.

in Wall St. Stocks makes laming everything. Bankers, 17 Wall St., N.Y

N Lean $10 to $150 a

ner. B'kf'st and Ten Fine Engraved Goblets $1 Knives, $6 a doz. House s boxed free. 50-page Price er Institute, N. Y. city.

TOGRAPH

doz. 50 ets. Send picture S. B. ARCHER, Troy, N. Y.

place shere you die of magriage VRZ, 4 Printing

In Agents Novelties

Free by mail on application to

Manufacturing Publishers Street, Boston, Man

EAD THIS!

ry of $100 per month and minission to sell our new We mean what we say.

O., Marshall, Mich.

CARINET ORGANS

HENT HUNDES AT ALL S FOR TWELVE YEARE, 1876. 1873, NANTIAO, 1875; 1878. and GRARD SWEDISE 3. American Organic ever shy such. Sold for deal of D CATALOUTES and Chru-ices, sant free. M ANON Ston, New York or Obligation

ANTERNS

EREOPTICONS

T. MILLIGAN

Thia old and weit-tried Remode has prover. Its value in all diseases from Tangure or Impoerp ished Blood, as Serce uia, Rheumatis n. (1-cerous Sores, White les, Bone Diseases, etc.)

No other Rem. Sold by all Dr

PARNIN

RANSCRIPT

Best Family Newspaper a special reference to the a of the home circle. All blished promptly.

to one address.) $7.50 per um, in advance. MPLE COPY.

cekly, Quarto,

I, MASS.

annum in ad

T

IAME.

MIGHTY!

the great Spaces | I for 28 4.3 Cents | 1, calor of even and |

ENS LAY.

Surgeon and Oliminist now says that most of the Horse with a most of the Horse with a most of the Horse with a says of the same of the data of the same and the ideal a Candidian Powders. e pint food. Mail for eight letter stamps. S. JUNSON & CO., Bangor, Manne.

shed 1833.

HANT'S Dil Liniment Animal and White for n Flesh, op voa Sprains and Bruises, Stringhalt, Windgalls Food Rot in Sheep, Food Rot in Sheep, Foodnerod Feet, Rsup in Poultry, Cracked Heels, Epizootic, Lame Back, Hemorrhoids or Piles, Toothache, Rheumatism,

Rheumatism, Spayins, Sweepey, Fistula, Mange, Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Carb, Old Sores, Corns, Whitlows, Cramps, Bois, Weakness of the Joints Contraction of Muscless Other the standard instantly removed the paper cover discovering a square moreceo box, brass bound, with the key tied to the bundle, Opening it, he showed me the geme. They were indeed, magnificent, set in the massive Indian fashion, while many eyes, a cry of alarm burst from my lips, "What is it, Nell?" asked Arthur.

Contraction of Muscles. (R Oil is the standard ted States. Large size, all, agc. Small size for aufactured at Lockport, Gargting Oil Company. JOHN HODGE, See'7.

diamond necklet in his hand, for my ad-miration, when happening to raise my eyes, a cry of alarm burst from my lips. "What is it, Nell?" asked Arthur. "The man !" I replied. "See, the window is uncurtained, and I am sure I saw a man looking in from the tree out-side." "Nonsense !" cried Arthur. Nevertheless, he flung up the window, called, and gazed in every direction. There was nothing--not a sigh, not a sound; and assured as I was that I had been mistaken, he fastened the latch, and dropped the curtain. As, however, he was abont to put away the diamonds, I said, "Arthur, would it not be better to place them in the safe in your bedroom ?" He agreed in the advisability, and looked them up; then, having cautioned

As, however, he was about to put away the disannels, I said, "Arthur, would it not be better to place them in the safe in your bedroom ?" He agreed in the advisability, and locked them up; then, having cautioned me to see well to the house-fastenings, and asked again if I was not really frightened to remain alone all night with only the servants—Jane and Jenkins, he left for town. I saw everything se-he left for town. I saw everything se-cure and went to bed early, locking Arthur's bedroom, and taking the key with me.

with me. It was long before I slept. When I did, I was almost immediately aroused by a slight sound at my door. I asked who was there, Jane's voice answered in a cautious whisper. Seeing some-thing was wrong, rising, I admitted her. No sooner had she entered than, quickly closing the door, sha fastened it and ex-claimed, in accents of therers: No sooner had she entered than are there where a sound-there is a caution while the sound at the sound-there is a caution while the sound at the sound

Words of Wisdom.

lived virtuously. Great power of acquisition is common o millionaires and bogs. The hatred of those most nearly reated is the most inveterate.

Words of Wisdom. They only have lived long who have homestead of the Horton family, de-stantly flew at him and threw him down. He should for help, but the spectators thought it was all in the show, and did not interfere until he was killed.

The Chinese population of San Fran drymen, 1,500; merchants and pro

There is a prospect that America will presently once more behold a prince. The second son of the crown prince of Germany is about to start on a voyage around the world on board a German soendants of the original settler of the town. In the year 1639 a colony of thirteen persons from England landed in the harbor, among whom was Barnabas Horton, the builder of the house. Cap-tain Wells, one of the oldest inhabitants of the town, whose manore more hear the ship lay at sucher

And though any after day I shead ofteed And though never a blossom I go for, There is flower wherever I tread. I make cake while the sun is a shining. My pies on the market are blest, Though crusty, I never am whining. And my yeast rices cut in the west.

John Howard.

John Howard, the philanthropist, from whom the association whose Amer-ican branch has done such efficient work at the South takes its name, was The Oldest Honse in America. Speaking of the Horton mansion at Southold, Long Island, the New York Herald says: The house is the oldest in America, and from the date of its building in 1639 down to the present day, has been in constant occupation, and until within five years was the homestead of the Horton family, de-scendants of the original settler of the mission, it is unnecessary to speak at length. Their-fame is inseparably blended with the history of that period, dating from their commencement in 1741, to their untimely close in 1790, allef, and gand. In every direction, analy by placing a revolve at any head. In the or an analy by placing a revolve at any head. In the or an analy by placing a revolve at any head. If the year cannot be asset of the control on the order is into a summer of the context into a summer of the s

Original issues in Poor Condition Best copy available

+ - -

4