

lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover he must have a good report of those which are without." To these general characteristics I would add that to fill the particular post for which a bishop is now needed we require a man not only of high spiritual character but who possesses special missionary zeal and ardor, one who loves his Saviour, and is willing to endure hardness for His sake; and in order to commend himself to our choice at this time he must be one who is not swayed by the fancies of the day, but of a sober and well-balanced mind, having a firm grasp of those all-important verities which he is to diffuse throughout his new Diocese.

I shall say no more, but leave the matter in your hands, or rather in the hands of God. May our choice at this time be His choice; and may our manner of conducting this solemn meeting be according to the mind and guidance of His Holy Spirit!

The METROPOLITAN then named the Very Reverend Dean Bond, as chairman ad interim, and withdrew with the other Bishops, after having directed the Lower House to elect their Prolocutor.

ROLL OF DELEGATES.

The VERY REVEREND DEAN BOND accordingly took the Chair and directed the Secretaries to call over the Roll.

The CLERICAL AND LAY SECRETARIES respectively called over the Roll of the Clerical and Lay Delegates as follows:
