The Wizard Tonight

An opportunity is offered those who missed seeing the greatest show of the season, "The Wizard of the Nile," last week, to attend this evening's performance of that opera at the Opera House. No opera has ever received more universal endorsement in this city than the "Wizard of the Nile," and do not go to see it this evening who miss what undoubtedly is the best theatrical treat of the season. The production will be complete to the smallest detail, the scenery, costumes and properties used being the same as Frank Daniels had in his famous New York tour of this opera. This bill will be repeated at the matinee tomorrow. The Robinson Company will play their farewell performance tomorrow night presenting "La Mascotte." Souvenir photos will be distributed.

A FEAST OF FISH.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The Aldeburgh "Great Banquet" an annual feast of fish has just been held after a fortnight's postponement caused by the dearth of sprats on the Suffolk coast. It was announced during the banquet that as good hauls had been made off what have been the finest sprats of the season a consignment of selected fish has been forwarded as a present from Aldeburgh fishermen to the king.

Keith's

This week's regular vaudeville bill will be taken off after the matinee on Saturday and there will be the usual performance of amateur specialties, animated pictures and illustrated songs tomorrow evening. A specially attractive series of pictures has been obtained from New York and as a number of amateurs have applied for time on the boards at the performance, there should be a first rate entertainment.

On next week's bill there are more than the usual number of novelties. And the great Water Queen, will give demonstrations in her famous stage water tank. The Evertas, who have been brought to this country specially for the Keith circuit, are claimed to be the cleverest jugglers on the English stage. Acrobatic work on the Japanese plan by Orville and Frank, who stand at the head of their profession in their own line, will be one of the features. There will be a comedy sketch by the Plois and singing and dancing by Cramer and Beverly. Other acts are on the bill, including new series of magnificent animated pictures on the Bioscope and new views on the Stereopticon.

BRIEF DESPATCHES.

WILSON'S MILLS, Me., Jan. 31.—Arthur A. Flint, manager of a lumber company at Parmachenee Lake, is dead as the result of a shooting accident. While re-loading a shot gun Flint received the contents of a cartridge, which was accidentally exploded, the shot passing through his body and causing death within a short time. Flint was 66 years old. Several years ago Flint was well known among Boston and New York sportsmen as a guide in the Parmachenee region.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 31.—Miss Helen Gould, of New York, tonight called from abroad a subscription of $25,000 to the fund for the erection of a new and larger Y. M. C. A. building in Richmond, to cost about $300,000. The subscription period closed tonight, after a fifteen days whirlwind campaign with the fund at $201,000, so that Miss Gould's contribution makes the total amount of subscriptions $226,000.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Jan. 31.—Lester Connor, aged 22, of New Haven, committed suicide late today in a pawn shop here. He went into the place, bought a 38 calibre revolver, had the clerk load it, and without paying for it asked for a suitcase. When the clerk turned away Connor placed the revolver to his breast, sent a bullet through his heart and dropped, dying instantly. The police believe that he had been drinking heavily.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Twenty-two arrests were made tonight at the Orpheum Theatre, in Brooklyn, as the result of a riot which broke out during the performance by the Russell brothers of a play called the "Irish Servant Girl."

A number of Irishmen who resented the alleged anti-Irish tone of the play, began to pelt the performers with eggs but were with some difficulty hustled out of the theatre by the police. No one was seriously injured in the performance.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Jan. 31.—The Grand Jury today returned an indictment against Mattia Bailey and Martin Meyers, on the charge of assault with intent to kill in burying alive the baby of their seventeen year old granddaughter, Mary Bailey. The baby was found buried in the backyard by the authorities. It was taken out alive and is now in good health.

PUEBLO, Colo., Jan. 31.—The widow of former U. S. Senator Thomas H. Bowen, of Pueblo, died today, from grief over her husband's death, a month ago today. Mrs. Bowen had been ill for some time before Senator Bowen's death and after his death she began to fall rapidly.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—A coroner's jury in the case of William G. Copley who was held by the police in connection with the death of his wife and infant child, which occurred from pistol shot wounds, on Tuesday night last, from any blame.

This leaves the official version of the affair to be that Mrs. Copley killed both herself and child.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, Jan. 31.—A band of Terrorists this evening shot and killed Victor Gruen, the chief of the secret police of this city, as he was driving in a cab. The murderers escaped but the police and troops are searching Warsaw for them, and many suspects are being arrested.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31.—John Smith, a pioneer carpet manufacturer in the Kensington textile district of this city, died today, aged 72 years. Mr. Smith was born in Ireland.

SEDALIA, Mo., Jan. 31.—In the week of a freight train on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad today near Deerfield, Mo., in which thirteen cars went through a bridge, Walter Connolly of Pilot Grove was killed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—By winning tonight the third game of the match for the chess championship of the world against Frank J. Marshall, Dr. Emanuel Lasker now has three games to his adversary's none.
