REPORTS

LONDON, Nov. 16 .- The British steamer Planet Mars, Capt. Bromley, which arrived at Avonmouth, Nov. 13th, from Philadelphia, during a gale encoutered on the passage labored and strained heavily, shipped grad quantities of water and lost a seaman over

As before reported, the French line steamer La Champagne sighted the Planet Mars Nov. 6th in lat. 49.01, lon. 37.02 with engines storped and signals showing that she was not under control. BOSTON, Nov 18—The British steamer Ultonia, Capt Potter, from Liverpool, arrived there today, bringing among her passengers the crew, 15 in number, of the Glouester fishing schooner Mary P Mosquita, which was stank by collision with the Cunard steamrhip Saxonia in Massachusetts Bay several veeks ago, while the latter was on a voyage from this port to Liverpool. NANTUCKET, Mass, Nov 19-Wreckage, consisting of a portion of a vessel's after consisting of a pertion of a vessel's after house, with the name "Hudson" painted on it, a portion of a hull and some other wreckage with the name "Hudson" carved into the wood, washed ashore on the east end of Nantucket island, near Coskata fife saving station today. This wreckage, without doubt, is from the barge Hudson, which, together with the barge Robert Ingle Carter, broke adrift from the tug Teaser off Montauk point on the night of the 9th instant during a violent westerly gale, since which during a violent westerly gale, since whi time the Teaser has been constantly search ing for them.

This wickage shows conclusively that the Hidson either foundered at sea or was stranded on one of the numerous southerly

Nantucket and broke to pieces It is probable that her crew of four men have perished.

Tugs Gladiator and Teaser are now at sea BOOTHBAY, Me, Nov 18—The sch Agate ran ashore on Tumbles island last night. Captain Hall was struck by the foreboom, knocked overboard and drowned, his body knocked overboard and drowned, his body not having yet been found. Captain Hall belonged in Rockland, Me. The schooner Arate was from Bangor with a cargo of lumber for Boston, Captain Hall being her owner. The vessel is lying in a bad position and will probably be a total loss. PHILADELPHIA, Nov 19-The British steamer Miramir, from St Jago, reports that on Nov. 13, in lat 27.40, Ion 74.33 passed derelict schooner with bowsprit and part f foremast standing. The captain reports a derelict schooner with bowsprit and part of foremast standing. The captain reports it very dangerous to navigation.

This derelict is undoubtedly the schooner Mary E. Lormond of Thomaston, Me, which was abandoned on Sept 17th while on a voyage from Fernandina, Fla, to Martinique.

BOSTON, Nov 19—Capt Given of the schr Henry D. Lipsett, of whose safety there was much anxiety last week, says that the vessel passed the South shoal lightship during the gale of Nov. 9. His vessel was running before the gale under forestaysail. The captain believes that those on the tug Teaser misunderstood the report given them by the captain of the South shoal lightship concerning the condition of his vessel. He cerning the condition of his vessel. He does not believe that any vessel was driven past the e dismasted as reported.

Burial of the Late Henry Patterson, Formerly of St. John.

SALISBURY, N. B., Aug. 19.-Work on the new Baptist church at this place is progressing favorably. Lumbermen are making preparations for the winter's work. Alexander L. Wright & Co., in addition to their usual operations on the Little River. will run a portable mill at Baltimore,

Albert Co. A. E. Trites, railway contractor, is devoting considerable attention to his large farm here just now. He is superintending the erection of another stock barn, which will increase his stable room to the capacity of over two hundred head of cattle. The cheese factory here has closed for the year. The output this season was nearly twenty tons, which has had a ready sale. This factory, which was started last year by Robert Mc-Cready, appears to be giving mutual satisfaction to the farmers and oper-

Salisbury's popular young station agent, Charles S. Bulmer, who has been ill with lung trouble for several months at the home of his father-inlaw, Station Agent Sutherland, at Aulac, will leave for New Mexico the last of this month, for the benefit of his health. A. J. Gray is acting agent here in the meantime.

The funeral of the late Henry Patterson took place Sunday forenoon from the home of his brother, John W. Patterson, crown land surveyor, and was largely attended. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. J. E. Tiner, pastor of the Salisbury Baptist church, assisted by Rev. C. H. Manaton, pastor of the Methodist church here. The singing was conducted by members of the Baptist church choir. The pall bearers were Early Kay, A. E. Trites, Watson Parkin, Alexander Bleakney, Geo. W. Gaynor and Alfred Lester. Interment took place at Pine Tree cemetery. The deceased was about sevent-two years of age. The earlier part of his life was spent in St. John city, where he held positions of trust with several of the old firms. He was for many years with the firm of Tapley Brothers and was considered at that time one of the best accountants in the city. Later in life he owned and operated a large farm near Oromocto, N. B. Several years ago he was stricken with paralysis, from the effects of which he never fully recovered, and for the last few years has been living with his brother at this place. He leaves two sons, Fred Patterson of Wood-stock, who was present at the funeral, and Rev. Frank Patterson, who is preaching in the West.

A DUKE'S BRIDE.

A Charming Cincinnati Girl Captures the Duke of Manchester.

Old Folks of Both Families Kept in Dark as to the Ceremony

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 .- It is announced in a cablegram from London to the Journal and Advertiser that the young Duke of Manchester and Miss Helene Zimmerman, daughter of Eugene Zimmerman of Cincinnati, were married last Wednesday afternoon in don, in which parish the duke lives. Owing to the opposition to the marriage by the relatives of both bride and bridegroom, the wedding was extremely quiet. The Misses Helena and Effic Evans, aunts of the bride, waited on her; Ernest Lambert and Lionel Fandel-Philips, the duke's most intimate friends, attended him. The duke and duchess and Miss Helena Evans are now at Tanderage castle, the groom's Irish estate. The place was en fete on their arirval, and the duke's tenants welcomed him and his bride vociferously. The duke and duchess will sail for America next Saturday. The duchess, who has been in Europe since last September, has been living with her aunts in Paris. The duke lately has been leading the life of a country squire at Tanderage castle. The marriage was by special license, no banns being published. The bride wore a handsome gown of white cloth. She wore no jewelry.

As the bride's dower the duke gave her the castle. It is a fine old place, built of gray stone in the fifteenth century style. One thousand seven hundred acres surround it. The Dowager Duchess of Manchester and the duke's mother and the Duchess of Devonshire. his grandmother, were not informed of his wedding until lately. The duke, who is in excellent health, said his only desire is to settle down and to be a country peer.

LONDON, Nov. 19.-An inspection of the registrar of the Marylebone Parish church today showed the reported marriage of the Duke of Manchester to Miss Helene Zimmerman of Cincinnati to be true. The ceremony occurred last Wednesd w fternoon. The couple are now in Ireland. When the Dowager Duchess of Manchester was which it came into his possession. asked this morning by a representative of the Associated Press if the report of the marriage was correct, she denied it absolutely, alleging that the announcement had been made at the desire of a certain person who devautly hoped the marriage would occur. She evinced extreme displeasure at the idea of her son marrying Miss Zimmerman. Subsequently the downger duchess went to the church and inspected the records, and found to her great surprise that the marriage had occurred. LONDON, Nov. 20.-According to the Daily Mail, the marriage was the outcome of a long and romantic attachment, but it was only last July, to use the words of the duke himself, that they discovered they had been in love with each other all the time.

"Then the duke," says the Daily Mail, "seeing that many suitors were pressing their attentions upon Miss last Saturday morning, under very Zimmerman, claimed her for himself. The engagement was announced, but who was two years old, was so was denied by the relatives. HONORS FOR HATFIELD

Port Greville Teachers and School Children Honor One of Our Returned Heroes

On Tuesday evening the pupils Port Greville school gave a grand entertainment in honor of Private M. S. Hatfield, who lately returned from South Africa.

The hero of the evening was presen in khaki uniform and occupied a chair, draped with a Canadian flag, on the platform, supported by Rev. C. R. Cumming on his left and Rev. Dr. Wilson on his right. On arising to give his address, which he did toward the close of the programme, he was given a hearty "three cheers" by the large audience which had assembled to help the children to give the soldier of Greville a right royal welcome. He made his remarks very interesting, giving brief synopsis of his adventures from Quebec to Halifax, via the Transvaal. He was closely followed by every person present, all of whom were very anxious to hear his narrative, especially of the part taken in the capture of Cronie's men by the section of the regiment of which he was a member. The hall was decorated with numerous flags, both great and small. In the background was a large Canadian flag, the property of the public school, the organ was draped with the Union Jack, and the side walls were in line with the rest by having crossed on them a number of pairs of small Union Jacks mounted on short sticks. The patriotic feeling could not but run high under such conditions. The music by the children deserves a great deal of praise, as they had but a short time in which to prepare for the reception.

rehearsals, and was rewarded by having that part of the entertainment turn out a complete success. Principal Spinney, after a brief explanation to the audience, presented to Mr. Hatfield a cheque for $20, the portion of the "patriotic fund" alloted to each returning soldier. This was responded to in appropriate words the recipient, who will appreciate not for its financial value, but in
