WHY BE AFRAID OF GOOD FOOD?

Eat What You Like Best, and Follow It With a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

When the stomach aches or becomes gassy, with heartburn, it needs the alkaline effect to offset the acid condition. This you get from one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Relief is usually very prompt. The regular use of these tablets after meals gives the stomach and small intestine substantial help to digest food, and you will then be bold enough to eat baked beans, fried eggs, sausage, buckwheat cakes and many other things you thought would make your stomach miserable. Get a 60-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and you will then eat whatever you like and be fortified against the acid, sour stomach due to indigestion or dyspepsia.

AMERICAN BOY SCOUTS EXPECT GREAT BENEFIT

"Jamboree" Delegation to London Learn Lessons in International Affairs.

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.)
 By COLIN H. LIVINGSTONE.
 London, Sept. 7.—Primarily the visit of our Jamboree delegation to Great Britain, France and Belgium is of transcendent importance in the building up in the boys of a leadership that will make them competent to understand and act prudently in connection with all international affairs when they come to take their places as leaders of our citizens, as they undoubtedly will. They are meeting with boys and men from every nation that counts for anything in the world's affairs and are forming friendships that will have a transcendent influence in broadening their viewpoint on the fundamentals of their life work, be it at home or in the service of their country abroad.

Summit of Mt. Snowdon Sold
 (Copyright, 1920, by Daily Mail)
 London, Sept. 7.—The summit of Mount Snowdon, Wales, has been sold to Mr. Jones, tenant of the Hafod-Llan farm, for $36,250. It includes the ground rent of the Summit Hotel and several hundreds of acres of grazing land on Nant Gwynant side from the summit to the base. The land was formerly part of Sir E. Watkin's Hafod-Llan estate, where Mr. Gladstone was a guest many years ago. The statesman addressed a political meeting of 3,000 people near the summit of Snowdon in September, 1892. The estate was afterwards owned by Lieut. Colonel Worsley-Taylor who has just sold it.

Just Misses Him.
 The purchase of two ex-army mules certainly lived things up in a certain stable. The men were used to horses, but the newcomers called for a different sort of treatment. The boss went into the yard one morning and found a man trying to harness up a mule. The animal obviously disliked the idea. After looking on for some time the boss asked: "Does the mule ever kick you, Bill?"

"No, sir," replied Bill, keeping a wary eye on the animal, "but he often kicks where I've just been."

Here Is the Situation

For a long time New Brunswick has been deprived of Cabinet representation. The extent to which this Province has suffered by this condition is probably not realized by one in a hundred of our population. Perhaps more than any other Province in Canada New Brunswick requires someone in the councils of the Government who will always be on hand to present our just claims and to uphold our interests.

Now the opportunity is offered through the appointment of R. W. Wigmore to the portfolio of Customs in the reorganized government. And it becomes the duty of the people of New Brunswick, as confined for the present to the electors of St. John-Albert, to see that Hon. Mr. Wigmore is returned with such an overwhelming majority as will justify him in speaking for this Province with the fullest possible authority.

A group of malcontents, discredited by their own party and at loggerheads with their Provincial leader, have placed in the field in opposition to Hon. Mr. Wigmore a man who in the election of 1917 was literally snowed under, who has been forced into this fight against his will, and who, it is said, is already talking of backing down. There is no possibility whatever of his success, and he and those who are pulling the wool over his eyes, realize this perfectly well.

The issue today is the size of the majority to be given Hon. Mr. Wigmore, for, on the assumption that he will certainly prove a strong winner, some may be induced to stay away from the polls and thus lessen the support which he should be able to display to his colleagues in Ottawa.

PREMIER HUGHES NOT AT CONFERENCE

Political Situation at Home Too Delicate to Permit His Going to Geneva.

London, Sept. 7.—(Canadian Associated Press).—A Sydney cable to the Evening News says Premier Hughes is not attending the Geneva Financial Conference between the Allies, the political situation at home being too delicate, the government having had two narrow escapes within a fortnight. Other Sydney advices report considerable discussion concerning the reduction of the Australian naval expenditure, and the whole defence scheme is in the melting pot until the ministry makes up its mind what the country can afford.

EARTHQUAKE BRINGS PISA HOUSES DOWN
 Italian Villages Shaken Severely and Deaths Are Reported.
 Florence, Sept. 7.—An earthquake occurred at 7.35 o'clock this morning. It caused some damage in Pisa, and in the neighborhood of Spezia, Viareggio, Massa Carrara, Avenza and Vignola. Houses collapsed with some loss of life. At Codemandia there was one death and victims also were reported in the Garfagnana Valley.

Tokio, Sept. 7.—The mutilated bodies of seven Russian women encased in a hompion bag were recently found in Vladivostok harbor, according to special despatches received here.

VISITOR TELLS HOW TANLAC RESTORED HER

After Suffering from Stomach Trouble for Over Twenty Years Mrs. Fred Marsh is Again Well and Happy.

"When I think of all the suffering I went through with for nearly a quarter of a century, it just seems almost too good to be true that I am once more enjoying such splendid health."

This remarkable statement was made a few days ago by Mrs. Fred W. Marsh, of Yakima, Washington, while visiting her sister-in-law in Rothesay, N. B., a thriving little town just out from St. John. Mrs. Marsh lives at 307 South Seventh Avenue in Yakima and is the wife of a well-known business man of the city. "Ever since I was a girl," continued Mrs. Marsh, "I had suffered from stomach troubles, and at times had such acute attacks of indigestion that I would almost have welcomed death rather than go through the agony. When these spells came on me I had pains and cramps that were almost unbearable and the gas on my stomach was awful. There was a tight feeling across my chest and I was so choked up I just had to gasp for breath. The pains were worse at night than during the day and often I had to get out of bed and walk the floor before I could get any relief. I lost my appetite and to tell the truth I was almost afraid to eat."

"Sometimes I had violent headaches that lasted for half a day and frequently I had sudden attacks of dizziness and became almost dizzy sick at my stomach. I was often in such misery that I could not get to sleep until the early hours of the morning and of course when I got up I was worn completely out to start the day off with. This is how I suffered for nearly twenty-five long years, and I had been disappointed so many times that it just seemed there was no use ever trying any more to get any better."

"But one day in Yakima, an old friend of mine advised me to try Tanlac and I am so glad I took it. I improved in every way and in a short time was eating things I had not been able to touch in years. I felt so much better and stronger that I decided to visit my sister-in-law in New Brunswick and when I got over here, I found they were selling Tanlac here, too, and I was so glad I wanted to keep on taking it. In all I have taken four bottles, and now I am feeling perfectly well in every respect."

"The gas and pains have all disappeared and my stomach never gives me any trouble at all. The headaches and dizzy spells have left me and I sleep soundly every night. I feel just fine and wish I could tell everybody personally what Tanlac has meant to me."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative—Adv.

Cricket Match Ended In

Philadelphia, Sept. 7.—The cricket match between the English team of England, and the American team of the United States ended today at 1.30 in a draw. The local team scored 182 runs in their first innings. The English declared their innings closed when they had scored 187 runs for a total of 369 runs. The match was a draw for the second time.

CARL MAYS NOT AT CLEVELAND
 New York Management Knew "Spitballer" from Home
 Ray Chapman.
 New York, Sept. 7.—Carl Mays, New York American League pitcher, threw the ball which resulted in the death of shortstop Ray Chapman of the Cleveland team, did not join the Yankees when they left New York tonight on their western tour. Col. T. L. Huston, one of the club's trustees, announced that Mays would be with the team during the which opens in Cleveland. That he would be with the team was not taken into account.

"We are not taking Mays to Cleveland," said Colonel Huston. "The reason we think there is danger trouble, but out of respect to the fans of the people there. We want to offend them. It is a matter of sentiment."

CANADIAN CHAMP WAS ELIMINATED
 Roslyn, N. Y., Sept. 7.—C. P. Montreal, Canadian amateur champion, was eliminated from the race for the United States amateur golf championship in the play at the Englewood Country Club here today. He was defeated by Robert A. Grier, Chicago, nine and seven. Grier's score was almost hopeless after the 13 holes, for he was then five under par, while Grier was only one over par. Grier then won the match by a score of 18 to 17.

Scotchman Won.
 Thomas A. Armstrong, Scotchman, holds the amateur championship of France, won on the home green. George Hoffman, Philadelphia, starting his second round three to one, made a sensational hole-in-one with four birdies in five successive holes, but failed to square the hole on the home green, through a hole which he says has followed through the tournament. He needed four par to tie the match, but he needed five.

S. David Herron, Pittsburgh, holder, defeated Peter Harmon, York, after an uphill battle that lasted to the thirty-third hole. Francis Outmet, former open amateur champion, Bobby Jones, and the youthful prodigy, Sweetser, Yale intercollegiate champion, and P. J. Wright, Jr., the Massachusetts champion, also their matches.

Chick Evans and Fred Wright, the hopes of their many followers, excellent cards that broke up Evans' card of seventy-two was that has ever been turned in in their competition on the Englewood course and has been called one of the club's professional.

Wright went out in his afternoon in 34, a record which equaled by Outmet, last week, in a competition with the team sent to Canada. The winners are paired for the second round tomorrow.
