Butterism. The Attorney General, in his remarks about newspapers yesterday, was very respectful to his colleagues—Willis and Elder. He seems to forget that it was the newspapers and their Catholic cry that carried him so triumphantly at the polls.

The Coy Connation vs. the Caddis. The main feature of this suit up to the time of the action brought was given yesterday. The trial, of course, excited intense interest, and had it been held in this city all the entertainments of the past year must have taken its regular course before it.

My dear Mary, I would give a good deal to be able to talk to you, and give you four or five kisses every week. I hope you have not forgotten the good-cuddling I gave you last.

What a kind heart! Probably the "poor fellow" in question is equally sorry for O'Leary now. "I hope," says Mrs. Leary, "that the poor fellow will be able to find his way to the hospital."

Appointing the Chief of Police. Mr. Elder and Mr. Keane opposed the bill giving the Common Council power to appoint the Chief of Police.

After some further references to the bill he cut out, he concludes: "I can assure you that I will feel the sting of it, and I shall say so."

Think and pray for me. Your own dear and affectionate Henry. In the next letter he philosophically consoles himself for her absence.

Violating Harbor Regulations. Yesterday Inspector O'Brien made a charge against Captain Bourwell, of the schooner J. W. Deane, for violating the ordinances by discharging coal without a tarpaulin being stretched from the vessel to the wharf.

As a color, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Helio Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it is only requisite to administer this successful invention to try the fabled, give applications and motion to the torpid and bring about a condition which not only cures tenaciousness of life but MAKES LIFE REALLY ENJOYABLE.

getting you. I don't like widows let them be ever so young, but I would be glad if I married a young girl like— I anticipate I will be happy once more when I get my arms around you, I will not leave you in a hurry.

Had the sun of his happiness already begun to set and give him the mystical lore which dictated the first part of the concluding sentences? The shadow of sorrow must even then have hovered o'er the scene of bliss, and even then had the fates begun to work those momentous changes which were destined to convulse Kent County and make famous the name of O'Leary.

An injunction, at the suit of Hon. Benl. Beveridge, has been granted to restrain the N. B. Railway Company from building the proposed bridge over the St. John.

The Gazette contains the appointment of George S. Gimmer, Esq., to be Judge of Probate, pro hoc vice, in the estate of James W. Street, of St. Andrews, in the County of Charlotte, Esq., deceased.

The St. Stephen Journal says that Mr. Ouburn, Manager of the N. B. & C. Railway, has telegraphed to Mr. Appley, M. P., who has charge of the bill for the charter for the railway bridge across the St. Croix, not to bring it up the present session.

The building owned by Mr. Thomas Anderson, Dorchester, and used as a blacksmith's shop and carriage manufactory, was destroyed by fire on Friday morning. Some of the tools and fittings were saved, but two carriages were burned.

A bear, who owed part of his 100 pounds weight to get above the level last summer, was recently destroyed at Little Ridge, Charlotte.

Even in the saloons, opinions upon Mrs. Leary's conduct are expressed. A gentleman slightly under the influence of the intoxicating bowl furnished proof of the public schools, and said: "I wish that he could give her a dozen kisses, he subscribes himself 'Your own dear Henry.'"

The St. Louis Globe tries to make its subscribers believe that it is the approach of the time when Wagner shall draw the themes for his opera from Emerson's historical sketches.

Mr. Lockhart sold at auction to-day the interest of G. W. Ferris, an insolvent, in the woodstock Ellen F., and also John Rook's mortgaged interest in the same. The purchaser was Mr. A. W. Baird, and $2,400 was the amount paid.

The Portland steam fire engine was tested near the Valley Church yesterday afternoon and was found to be in excellent condition after repairs.

A very enjoyable entertainment was afforded last evening at the open temple meeting of Eureka Subordinate Temple and Eureka Social Temple of H. & T., held at the Academy of Music.

The thermometer was 12° at 4 this morning, against 40° this day last year. This is the coldest day we have had since March commenced.

The boarding was removed from the front of Mr. Thos. Merril's new building this morning, and the fine appearance of the edifice was remarked by the public.

A drove of Canadian cattle arrived by train last night and were driven through Prince William street this morning.

CATARRH IN THE EAR—So it would almost seem by the hundreds who are suffering from its causes. Now don't do it any longer, but run to the nearest drug store and buy a box of Rader's German Snuff. It will only cost you 30 cents.

Edward Finley and George Cochran came to the Station for protection last night and were discharged this morning. Alice Moore was found lying drunk on Rebecca street and was carted to the Station.

A few drops of Dr. Fossman's Improved ESSENCE upon a wet tooth brush forms a rich, creamy foam in the mouth, imparting a delightful fragrance to the breath, and thoroughly cleansing the teeth from all impurities.

QUESTIONS.—We would advise the readers of THE TRIBUNE, especially those who are fond of oysters, to call on George Sparrow, at the head of King street, and try those splendid oysters which he has on sale.

She schooners Kitty Stevens and Kathleen, for Barbadoes, left the harbor at nine o'clock this morning, the former being in charge of a tug and the latter undermasted. The Athlete, for Digby, and some other small vessels also left about the same time.
