

Commissioners empowered to issue, and Sheriffs and other officers bound to execute their warrants.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Commissioner or Commissioners, duly appointed and acting under the authority of this Act, to issue any warrant or warrants under their hands and seals, directed to any Sheriff, Gaoler or Peace Officer, of the District in which any proceeding shall be had before them, commanding such Sheriff, Gaoler or Peace Officer, to carry into effect any order by them made in respect to any matter within their jurisdiction; and such warrant or warrants shall be executed by the Sheriff, Gaoler or Peace Officer, to whom the same may be directed, in the same manner as warrants issued by any of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace are executed.

Commissioners entitled to same protection as Justices of the Peace, &c.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners appointed under and by virtue of this Act, and all others acting under their authority, shall be entitled to the same privileges and protection in respect of any action or suit that may be instituted against them for any act by them done, that by law is granted and secured to any Justice of the Peace, Sheriff, Gaoler or Peace Officer, against whom an action may be brought for any thing by him done in the execution of his office.

Appeal lies against judgment of Commissioners to the Vice-Chancellor.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person shall be dissatisfied with the judgment or decision of the said Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for him at any time, not exceeding three months from the date of such judgment or decision, upon giving fourteen days' notice in writing of his intention to the said Commissioners, who shall thereupon transmit to the proper officer of the Court, for the use thereof, a copy of their judgment, together with the evidence taken before them the said Commissioners; to appeal therefrom to the Court of Chancery of this Province, and the Vice-Chancellor is hereby authorized and empowered to revise, alter, affirm or annul the decision of the said Commissioners, or to order such further inquiry to be made, or if he shall see fit, to direct an issue to be tried at law touching the matter in dispute, and to make such orders and directions therein for payment of costs, and other matters respecting the same, as to him shall seem just and reasonable; and the decree of the said Court of Chancery to be given on such appeal shall be binding and conclusive on the party appealing, as well as on the said Commissioners.

Decision in Chancery final.
