

MUGWUMP JOURNAL

By Karen Mair

Here it is, my last mugwump, my last Bruns. I guess I will survive.

In case you did not know, the College Hill Social Club is holding their Board of Directors Meeting on Monday night. It will be held in Room 26 and is scheduled to start at 7 pm. You must have a current valid membership. Check this out folks - if you ever wondered who oversees the Social Club this is your chance to find out. I believe they have a seat to fill and have to elect a couple of new officers to 1 or 2 year terms. Membership has its privileges so exercise yours!

Summers coming - crazy shorts are emerging. Sorry Mo! I had to say something about the blue ones! Really!

I heard through the grapevine that a student did her senior report on pedestrian safety on the UNB campus. Good topic or what!

I'd like to take this time out to say thank you to the two Marlenes and Glenna for adding some sanity to the S.U. office. It used to be disastrously chaotic - now it is just disastrous!

I half thought (yes, at this point I am incapable of full thought) about starting a mountain biking club. Nothing fancy - just a lot of fun. Any takers? Going to be around for the summer?

Dana... skunk... do you know what you are getting into? Better question... do we?!

So... President Downey is leaving UNB. Our's is not to wonder why - thick and fast the rumors fly.

Did you check out the home show at the Aching Centre last weekend? There was this mini home paired outside. Someone told me that it cost 52,000 dincros. I just had to check it out. There were, all told, four rooms. That is simply outrageous!

I would like to change my name to Kwame Mair... it has a ring to it don't you think.

Some renegades from the past have returned to UNB. A sort of Rosary Hall Reunion is being brought together - what say we meet at the Social Club Saturday night. Ritz crackers and Newcastle Browns are on order... say matt... how about a beer special.

Enough is enough! The next time you pool sharkies play a 9 handed game of straight pool during peak hustling hours I am going to kill you! Gary... This means you!

Well... here it comes... my last hurrah! Dear readers, you have to realize what a dangerously volatile situation I am in right now. I can slime anyone I want an and no one can get me back until at least next year. Last Bruns doncha know. At any rate, I have come up with a nonsensical conglomeration of a sentence that you might enjoy. Here it comes... slime, slime slime...

TUITION TAXES LINEUPS, LOSING, PROFS, DEADLINES (of any kind), DISKS, UGLY BOYS AND DUMB GIRLS, LIBRARY LADIES, PRESIDENTS (of anything), PARKING TICKETS (sorry guys!) GETTING PUDDLED, BEAVER FOODS (except their muffins), IMPOTENCY, FLAT BEER, ELECTION DAYS, BELLIGERENT DRUNKS, INDECISION, INSURANCE DEDUCTIBLES, ANDY FORM OF POLITICS, PERSONNEL SHUFFLE, Dave the dork, unbordered pictures, the Bank of Montreal and OVERATED BARS, TYPOS (especially in the Bruns!) FLAT TIRES, TIGHT LINKS, and finally, hearing about the 'five year plan' in my first year and understanding what it meant five years later.

I really hope I didn't leave anything out. Before I go I would like to say hi to my mom. And goodbye to UNB.

Word of the week "Yah... REALLY... EH?" Pronounced "yakreallyay!" Meaning: expression muttered in response to any dilemma.

OPINION...

Do you realize how hard it is to write an opinion... and for once in my life I don't have an opinion, but I'm sure if I think long and hard enough something will come to mind. How would it make you feel if you were expecting to graduate in May, and lo and behold, you get a letter from the registrar telling you that you haven't met your degree requirements to graduate? Well, the main problem with these letters, is that they don't get sent out until the end of March of 1st of April. As a student you really have a lot of time to make changes in course selection, so as a student you could graduate.

Well, if it's only a minor problem you can pick up courses in intersession and summer session, and still graduate in your respected graduation year!

Well, the end of the year is almost here and it's time to do some reflecting...

Let's look at the success of this year's Student Union.

The Big One was the success of Varsity-Mania; Carl Burgess did an awesome job and boosted school spirit for our varsity teams. He also showed that the students were not totally apathetic.

Another big accomplishment was that Travel Cuts will be the new travel agency in the SUB. This proves that the Administration of this university is taking the student body seriously with our endeavors. We are also now full members of the Canadian Federation of Students (CFS). Jane Arnold, and many others too numerous to mention worked very hard to get CFS voted in and they should be congratulated. The Student Union also joined the Fredericton Chamber of Commerce, (this was Dean's Baby) to improve our community appearance. The main reason for this was that we deal with a great number of businesses in the City of Fredericton and once again prove we are responsible.

The relationships between the Student Union and the various clubs and societies has greatly improved because of faculty consultations that were organized by Luigi Rocca.

Let's see what Ernie did this year. he and his Finance Committee came up with one of the best financial policies ever. Everything is laid out clearly and there should be no misunderstandings. (Ha! Ha!)

Problems that arose this year... the only one people will remember is Campus Entertainment, and the only problem there was, the organizers tried something new by programming every two weeks. The ironical thing about this is that the Social Club is doing it and being successful, congratulations Matt!! Some hopes for next year:

For next year I hope that the new Student Union Executive will continue to move forward, and that they won't stagnate in their tracks. I hope they work well together and don't let personal differences interfere (remember you're working for the students). Let's hope that all those people who voted "no" aren't right!

To Stephane Comeau, the new V.P. Activities, head of Campus Entertainment. I hope that CE is a great success next year and that you have a great committee to work with. Just a reminder, it's not an easy job. (Let me know if you start questioning your sanity, I know the cure-all!)

Just a few final words:

To all elected members of council: It's not just an easy line on a resume.

To Peter Lund of Bar Services: next time, maybe you won't put both feet in your mouth.

And finally, good luck to all this summer, and best of luck for next year!
