

STREETSVILLE Around The Town

Pat Evans, 826-3022

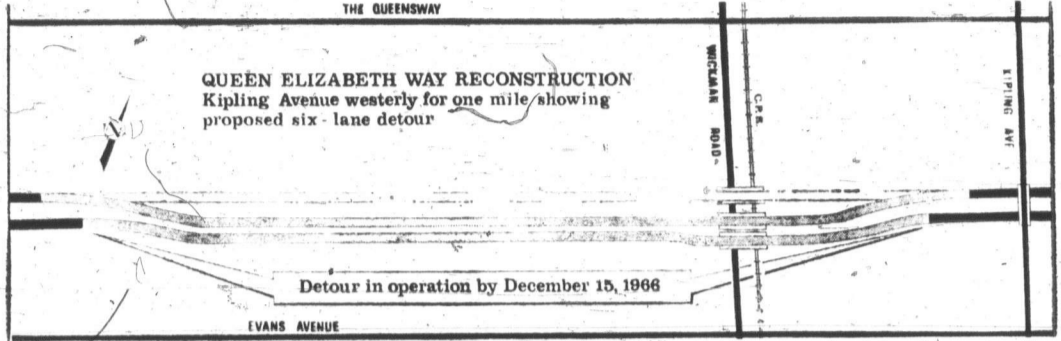

Saturday evening July 9, the Scouters of Peel Central District held a surprise banquet for the Provincial Field Executive, Denny Lewis and his wife, Vi, at the Sportsmen Restaurant in Streetsville.

Denny is leaving Peel Central District to serve in the Windsor-London District.

District Commissioner,

Ivor Kellett, expressed regret at Denny's leaving and passed on the sincerest regards of the other Scouters. He then presented Denny and his wife with a silver tray inscribed with the Peel Central District's insignia.

Mrs. Freeman Eastall of Barbertown rd. was a $25 winner last week on the Dominion Store Horse Races.

The Honorable C. S. MacNaughton, Minister of Highways, has announced that a contract for the construction of a detour and retaining walls on the Queen Elizabeth Way from Kipling ave. westerly for approximately one mile has been awarded to C.A. Pitts (General Contractor) Ltd. and C.A. Pitts Construction Holdings Ltd., for $925,390.80. This is the initial contract in a program to widen the Queen Elizabeth Way to 10 lanes through the area. Included in the contract is the demolition of the existing Queen Elizabeth Way structure over Wickman rd. and the construction of a temporary structure to carry a six-lane detour through the area. Work will get under way on this project by Aug. 2, and the detour is slated to be in operation by Dec. 15.
