Dear Mr. Meighen,

This is just to wish you a happy & successful 1934. I should have wished you a merry Christmas but I was rather distracted and quite overlooked it. I am sure, however, that you knew it was just a matter of the spirit being willing but the mental capacity of the woman being weak.

If you should see a copy of the Round Table, do read the article - "How Masses react". It is most interesting to our cynics but would be hair raising to all good (?) bankers!

Best wishes, yours sincerely
Jane M. McDonald
