

Additional grants to schools of all kinds and more especially to primary schools, the people's schools;

Establishment of technical schools;

Establishment of a school of higher commercial studies;

Foundation of new normal schools;

New grants for commercial academies in the country;

New bonuses to teachers and to school boards;

Increase of school inspectors' salaries.

Such, taken at random, are some of the reforms accomplished by the Liberals, by the Gouin Government especially.

It now rests with the electors to say whether they prefer to return to the regime of 1892-97.
