

opposite to the number of such pew in the pew list mentioned in Article 4 shall be sufficient evidence of such letting.

ARTICLE XIV.

All moneys arising from the sale, assessment, and letting of the pews in said Church shall belong to and form part of the general revenues of the said Church.

ARTICLE XV.

The Temporal Committee shall at the general annual meeting in each year appoint two competent persons to audit the accounts of the Treasurer for the preceding year, and to prepare a statement thereof, and of the general pecuniary affairs of said Church, to be printed, and a copy thereof laid upon the book board of each occupied pew in said Church, as soon after the said general meeting as may be convenient.

ARTICLE XVI.

All persons purchasing or leasing pews in said Church shall be required to sign these articles, and all persons signing the same do and shall thereby agree and bind themselves to observe and abide by the same and every part thereof so long as the same shall remain in force, and all additions to and alterations in the same, which shall from time to time be made by the parties, and in the manner hereinbefore provided in that behalf.