DEATH OF MRS WADDELL

Mrs. R. H. Waddell died on Thursday, Jan. 19th, at her late residence on Middle Road, Tilbury East, in the 82nd year of her life. Deceased was born in Dublin, Ireland, and moved to Canada over 60 years ago with her husband and one child and first settled in Tilbury on the farm where she died. Deceased leaves a husband and two surviving children, Mrs. W. L. Moorehouse, of Chatham, and Jas. W. Waddell at home. The late Rev. R. H. Waddell, B. D., who died about 15 years ago while stationed at Mount Forest, was a son of deceased. Mrs. Waddell, who formerly belonged to the Episcopal church, united with the Methodists a few years after coming to Canada, and first attended service in her own house for many years until 1857, when a Methodist church was erected nearby, and on the close of that church about 22 years ago, allied herself with the Tilbury Methodist church. She, with her husband, experienced all the hardships of the early pioneers. Deceased always lived an exemplary life and her quiet demeanor and Christian fortitude was an inspiration to all who knew her. Deceased is survived by her husband, which will be remembered with pleasure to many.

The funeral took place the following Saturday to Stewart cemetery, which was largely attended, while a memorial service was held Sunday evening in the Tilbury Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Ure officiating.

Czar Declares Martial Law in Three Polish Governments.

Strike Spreading in Poland and Polish Refugees Are Flocking Into German Towns On the Border—More Strikers Killed At Lodz—Kassia Apologizes to Britain Regarding the St. Petersburg Riots—Incidents Closed.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—The Lokal Anzeiger, Kattowitz, Prussia, correspondent says the arrival of the refugees from Russian Poland, is assuming large dimensions, and that every incoming train is crowded, mostly with women and children. Most of the Russian towns near the frontier are filled with refugees.

The strike in Russian Poland, the correspondent says, is still spreading, and is affecting the entire industrial region from Silesia to Galicia, on the Austrian frontier. Polish newspapers estimate the total number of strikers at 400,000.

The Lokal Anzeiger Warsaw correspondent says: "At Lodz yesterday during the funeral of 15 victims of the recent troubles, a fight between workmen and the military broke out, two of the latter being killed and 15 wounded."

"Serious labor disturbances are announced from Silesia, Russian Poland, and Lublin, 60 miles southeast of Warsaw."

St. Petersburg, Feb. 6.—Foreign Minister Lamortoff in an official note to Sir Chas. Hardinge, the British Ambassador, has formally disavowed the action of Deputy Chief of Police Roudneff of Moscow, in posting a placard asserting that the strikers were assisted with money from Japanese and British sources with the purpose of crippling the arsenals and other Government works.

Incident Is Closed.

Warsaw, Feb. 6.—Col. Napier, the British military attaché, who was sent here to investigate the alleged Russian Hussars on British Consul-General Murray and Mr. Muecklin, the pro-consul, has returned to St. Petersburg to report to the Embassy. The incident is regarded as closed.

Barens Takes a Hand.

Moscow, Feb. 6.—The assembly of nobles yesterday voted on two addresses to the Emperor and the Conservative address was adopted by a vote of 219 to 143. After a lengthy discussion, however, the assembly decided to forward both the Liberal and Conservative address to His Majesty. The Conservative address declares the present troublesome time is not the right moment to consider any re-organization of the system of Government, and expects the autocratic rule to rule in consciousness of his strength, for in greatness his power lies in the strength and hope of the Russian people.

In a State of Panic.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Feb. 6.—Reports from Czesochowa, Russian Poland, say that the city is in a state of panic. The inhabitants are barricading their doors and windows in consequence of the attitude of the strikers.

Disown Deputation.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 6.—The workmen to the number of 4,000 in the car shops here have drawn up a manifesto disavowing the delegates who were put forward as representing them in the deputation which visited Emperor Nicholas at Tsarskoe-Selo on Wednesday, Feb. 1. The employees of one or two other factories may follow suit, but the workmen in general are inclined to stand by the deputation.

ACCUSED MURDERER CAUGHT.

Winnipeg, Feb. 6.—Followed by the police for over three weeks and with certainty that, if captured, he would have to face a charge of murder, Frederick Sweredas' race for liberty was brought to sudden termination at St. Paul, Minn., Saturday morning, where he was arrested by Detective Johnson of the Third Detective Agency, on a description sent south by Chief McEwen who has wired Johnson to bring the prisoner to Winnipeg.

Sweredas is believed to have been the prime mover in the murder of the negro, George King, whose dead body was found lying on the track in the C.P.R. yards on the morning of Jan. 17. Two men, Cynear and Raga, have been charged with the murder of King, and four other Catholics, Ren Slobogion, Shnad Nasaruk, John Raga and Stefan Stodola, are held, charged with aiding and abetting.

HAVE RUSSIANS WON?

French Journalists Declare Court At Paris Will Be Fair.

Paris, Feb. 6.—The close of the testimony before the International Commission inquiring into the North Sea incident has been followed by a rather noticeable diminution of confidence in British circles concerned with the case, and a corresponding elation on the part of the Russians.

The French press, which is strong pro-Russian, gives marked prominence to statements that the Russians have virtually won their case, the usually conservative Temps and Journal asserting positively that the majority of the court now favors the Russian theory that torpedo boats attacked Vice-Admiral Rozhdestvensky's squadron.

On the contrary, intimations are made that the tendency within the court is rather in the opposite direction. The reports favorable to the Russian view appear to result mainly from the positiveness of the testimony of Captain Clado and other Russian officers, that they saw torpedo boats attack the squadron, whereas the strongest British witnesses do not swear that no torpedo boats were there, but merely that they did not see them there.

ROSS STILL IN OFFICE.

Tries to Glorify Himself in the Closing Up Formalities.

Toronto, Feb. 6.—Premier-elect Whitney is expected to arrive on Tuesday, though on this point he is extremely reticent. Having regard to the small fitness of things he is no doubt waiting till he is "fixed," but the invitation will probably be forwarded to-day. Nobody seems to entertain the idea that the Lieutenant-Governor will call upon anyone else to form an Administration.

The desire of the present Cabinet that they shall have no "interregnum." There is a feeling that Premier Ross has sought to glorify himself by his action in "inviting" Mr. Whitney to be on hand when he steps out.

The Cabinet held its final meeting Saturday afternoon, and at the close it was unofficially announced that the Premier would proceed to the residence of the representative of the Crown on Monday afternoon and submit his resignation.

Mr. Whitney will probably hand the names of his Cabinet to the Lieutenant-Governor as soon as he accepts office from his hands.

KILLAM IS CHAIRMAN.

The Railway Commission Vacancy Filled By the Government.

"Pro-Anglican Catholics."

Rome, Feb. 6.—Reports have just reached the Vatican of the formation of a large Roman Catholic party in England under the leadership of the Duke of Norfolk. The new league styled the "Pro-Anglican Catholics," counts as members all the prominent Roman Catholics of the United Kingdom, including several peers of the realm. Its purpose is to obtain more favorable Roman Catholic legislation from both Houses of Parliament, especially regarding the partial support of Roman Catholic schools by the Government. All regulations and details concerning the new league have been submitted to and approved by the Vatican authorities.

Parent Wants Postponement.

Montreal, Feb. 6.—As soon as Premier Parent received the resignations of his three colleagues, he called a Cabinet Council and postponed the meeting of the House from Feb. 9 to March 22. So far this minute of Council has not received the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor, and Hon. Mr. Gouin's friends believe that Sir Louis Jetté will decline to grant the postponement. The anti-Parent Ministers declare that they have fifty members out of a House of seventy-four who will vote against any motion made by the present Premier.

Remove the Embargo.

London, Feb. 6.—The West Limerick Executive of the United Irish League foresees in the recent statement of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman the removal of the cattle embargo by the next Liberal Government. The executive views the removal as highly detrimental to the tenant farmers and urges them, when purchasing holdings, to pay no more than Ashbourne prices.

EVERYBODY

Even a store is entitled to a "square deal"—a "fair show." That's a point upon which all good people agree. Now let us inquire.

Is it fair to us when you conceal a disappointment or a wrong you have suffered in your buying at our store, and allow us no opportunity to make amends?

We tell you of the goods and when they are examined at home, if there is a disappointment or a regret, if "money back" would please you most it is only necessary to tell us of your wishes. We do not want, and will not have, if we know it, any dollars to come to us at the cost of a patron's good-will.

Try us and see how it will work out.
