A heart so cold He would desire.

Note every cherub rapt in thought, See how his face with great light (it) beams

Then ask why God thy love has sought

When yours so cold and careless seems!

Ah! why stand they in silence thus? And with what is their vision fraught?

'Tis with God's wondrous love for us And the great price where with we're bought.

Thy Father, God, gifts to impart, To fill with His celestial treasure, Says to thee, "Son, give me thy heart And My love shall be thine forever.

Then, child of grace, give Him thy heart. By all the ties of love He claims it. Let joy's ennobling impulse dart

When He with love and light inflames it.

The Reply.

O yes! dear Lord, my heart is Thine. From childhood years for Thee I'll guard it.

Then 'round it flowers of grace entwine.

With heavenly joy forever reward it. -F. W. Gallagher.

Seraphin Marion, Ottawa, Op Death of Col. John F. Finerty

John F. Finerty, editor of The Chicago Citizen, and one of the best known Irishmen in America, died a few days ago at his home in Chicago. Mr. Finerty has been ill for several months. He underwent an operation some time ago and appeared to be on the road to recovery. A few weeks ago his condition was such that another operation was found necessary. He suffered from cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Finerty was born September 10, 1846, in Galway, Ireland. He came to the United States in 1864, and served in the Union Army. Shortly after the close of the war he went to Chicago. He immediately took up newspaper work, acting successively as reporter, city editor and correspondent. From 1876 to 1882 he acted as correspondent for the Chicago Times, in the Indian wars, where he had many thrilling experiences. In 1883 he was elected to Congress, where his oratorical gifts won him fame

For six times Mr. Finerty was president of the United Irish Societies of Chicago. In the carly days he was a radical on the Irish question and served in the Fenian raid into Canada. Later in the Land League days he affiliated with the radical element. In more recent years, however, he became a strong advocate of the parliamentary movement and served two terms as president of the United Irish League of America. As a lecturer Mr. Finerty has been heard in all parts of the country. He was a man of powerful physique and commanding presence, gifted with a remarkable
