I believe it is generally agreed by Philologists that the word Whitsun is derived from Pentecost through the Teutonic forms Phingsten and Whingsten ; so that the word should always be written and read Whitsun-Day, and not Whit-Sunday.—R. H.

Your correspondent's difficulty will be removed if he observes that Exodus xi. 1-3 is a parenthesis, and that the words of Moses to Pharaoh in Exodus xi. 4, &c., are only a continuation of his words in x. 29. As to Exodus xii. 31, I understand it as a message sent to Moses from the King.—E. O.

LENNOXVILLE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

HARROLD ASSOCIATION.

"We would venture to say that a greater number, and better prepared youths, have entered the various Universities in Upper and Lower Canada, during the last four years, from the Lennoxville Grammar School, than from all the public Grammar Schools in Upper Canada put together."

A meeting of the members of the Harrold Association will be held on Friday eve, Feb. 1st, at the usual time and place, for the purpose of arranging the business for the ensuing term.
