Ontario Ladies' College

Parents who are considering to what college they will send their daughters this fall, should write for the new calendar lately issued by the Ontario Ladies' College, of Whitby, Ont.

The many departments of the college are described and illustrated, and give an excellent idea of the advantages of this well-known institution.

The literary training offered the students begins with the work required for high school entrance, and extends to the third-year work of Toronto University.

The musical department, under the title of the Ontario Conservatory of Music, is affiliated with Toronto Conservatory of Music for examination purposes. Well-known instructors are at the head of the instrumental and vocal departments. A large pipe organ in the college concert hall is available for practice.

Altogether, the calendar reflects great credit on its compilers, and is just the kind of literature that one would naturally expect to receive from this live and progressive educational institution.

Dr. J. J. Hare, principal of the Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, will send a copy of the calendar to any of our readers who will write for it.
