

CHLORO-NAPHTHOLEUM DIP

Live Stock Disinfectant

There is nothing like Chloro-Naphtholeum Dip to keep live stock in thrifty condition. There are dips and disinfectants by the dozen, but they last only a few years and are then heard of no more. Chloro-Naphtholeum Dip has been

USED FOR TEN YEARS
AS A SURE CURE FOR MANGE-ITCH-LICE.

When we can sell Chloro-Naphtholeum Dip to the same farmers year after year, it must do the work. Those who have used it testify to its value, and even Government Experiment Stations use and recommend it. Easy to apply: non-poisonous. Send for free booklet.

Shipped concentrated: sold by dealers in sealed trade-marked cans. 1 gal., $1.50; 5 gals., $6.75; 10 gals., $12.50, prepaid.

Pandora Range

Strong Grates

"Pandora" grates are composed of three bars, with short bull-dog teeth, which grip, chop up and throw down the gritty clinkers, but squeeze the hard coal upwards.

The two outer bars work on the centre one, and all three are held together in one strong iron frame, which can be removed by merely unscrewing one bolt. This is a great point in a range. Most range grates require expensive experts to take out old ones and put in new grates. You can do the trick on a "Pandora" in ten minutes, with a ten cent piece for a screw driver. Isn't that simple, convenient, inexpensive?

The more you know about the "Pandora" the better you'll like it.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Veterinary.

PROBABLY PARASITIC IRRITATION.

On coming out of stable, several of our horses will commence to bite one another on the back of the neck, and bite the leg at fetlock; for one month or more. What can I do for them? SUBSCRIBER.
Baldur.

Ans.—Wash the parts bitten with some disinfecting solution, such as are advertised in our columns under dips; the coal-tar products being best suited for the purpose. The trouble is caused most likely by a small parasite. Have any horses in your locality been affected with mange? We have had reports of cases infected by horses brought from the Territories. Get your veterinarian to make a careful examination.

ABEYANCE OF SEXUAL APPETITE IN A MARE.

I have a valuable pacing mare from the Idol 1st family. She is eleven years old, and I have had her since she was five years old, and have never known her to be in season. She has been tried every week during the season for three years, and examined twice, and always acts ugly on each occasion. What can be done?
P.

Southern Manitoba.
Ans.—Such cases are not, by any means, rare. Submit your mare to the embrace of a vigorous, active young stallion, taking precaution to have her securely hopped so she cannot kick him. The forced service will not be fruitful; but she will answer to the advances of a stallion three weeks later, if tried in the usual way, and will, if sexually sound, conceive.

GROWTH AS RESULT OF HOCK WOUND

Can you kindly prescribe what is the best thing for a mare, seven years old, with a barb-wire cut on front of hock joint. There is a lump on the front of the hock about as big as my two fists. Would this have to be burnt off with caustic? It seems to be proud flesh. The leg is swelled from hock down to the hoof. The mare got the cut some time last fall, and there never was anything done for the wound until I got her last March. I physicked her with Barbadoes aloes, calomel and ground ginger. After I got the scurf off the wound, I dressed with ointment, consisting of iodine, four drams; iodide of potassium, three drams; alcohol, four drams; vaseline, four ounces. The swelling goes down some through the day, but rises again during the night. I am breeding the mare. NOVITE.
Willocks.

Ans.—At this date only a skillful operation by a good surgeon will give results to compensate for the trouble and time expended. These growths are hard to combat, and the application of mild caustics seems to stimulate such to greater activity.

SHOE BOIL.

A wound on the elbow of an old mare, caused by foot when lying down, has caused great trouble. Have had veterinary, who has cut and applied caustic, etc., but it does not heal, although under treatment for two months or more. I now merely apply with syringe a solution of carbolic acid, one to thirty. How can I protect the wound from irritation? I have put a pad on the leg below knee, and this does not prevent it. The mare always lies on this side. Can I try any plan to make her change sides, and what can be done to make wound heal? It is now pink, but when I tie her up for a night or two she prevents her lying down, it gets dry, and appears to be healing; then when I take her out, she has a little exercise, and when she lies down, the sore becomes inflamed and itchy, but with if any discharge, and a little swelling around.

Southern Ontario.
W. W.
Ans.—The most common cause of shoe boils is the use of a shoe which is too tight, or one which is not properly fitted. It is also caused by the use of a shoe which is too heavy, or one which is not properly balanced. The best remedy is to have the shoe properly fitted and balanced, and to use a shoe which is not too heavy. If the wound is already formed, it should be treated with antiseptics, and the shoe should be removed until the wound has healed.
