

REQUIESCAT IN PACE

"Greater love than this no man hath, that a man lay down his life for his friends." And what was said of old by our dear Lord to His disciples applies also to the members of our devoted clergy today, who during the recent epidemic gave up their lives in the service of God and in administering the last sacraments to the dying.

How true once more are those loving words of Christ when applied to Himself and to His faithful ministers: "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd giveth his life for his sheep. . . . I know mine and mine know me . . . and I lay down my life for my sheep."

May God have mercy on the souls of these dear priests, who have passed away to their reward, and may He, by blessing vocations, send other laborers into His field to fill up the depleted ranks.

The following is a list, although not complete, of the priests of Canada who have passed away during the epidemic, giving the diocese to which they belonged:

MGR. WIART

BRINGS JUBILEE GOOD WISHES FROM CARDINAL MERCIER

A third European jubilee reached Baltimore, in the person of Rt. Rev. Mgr. Carton de Wiart, cousin of General Carton de Wiart, V. C., etc., of the British Army. Mgr. de Wiart comes as the special envoy of the Belgian Government and of Cardinal Mercier, who, although he was unable to send a written message to the noble jubilarian, was able to send a verbal one. Mgr. de Wiart says "Cardinal Gibbons is deeply appreciated in Belgium, and is held in the highest esteem by their Majesties, the King and Queen of the Belgians."

On last Friday afternoon President Wilson received Mgr. Carton de Wiart, the distinguished Belgian prelate, who was the guest of the Belgian minister, M. De Cartier de Marchienne, who accompanied him to the White House.

The Monsignor came to this country to deliver King Albert's congratulations to His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons on the occasion of his golden anniversary, and when presented to the President offered the thanks of the Catholics of Belgium to the United States for the manner in which the nation has come to the rescue of that outraged people.

Though a Belgian by birth, Mgr. de Wiart was ordained and has spent the 27 years of his priestly life in England. He was secretary to the late Bishop of Northampton, and for a short time to His Lordship Bishop Keating. He is now secretary to His Eminence Cardinal Bourne and administrator of St. Andrew's Hospital, Dollis Hill, one of the most modern hospitals in London.

hospitals. After serving at various posts, they were sent to the Franco-Belgian frontier, where they took over three ambulances of that district, rendering aid to the Belgian and French troops and to the Belgian and French civil population.

Word has reached Washington that Mgr. Bonaventura Cerretti, papal under-secretary of state and former apostolic delegate to Austria, will come to the United States as special envoy of the Vatican to attend the jubilee celebration of His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons.

Monsignor Corretti is well known in the national capital, for when stationed at the apostolic delegation he was generally regarded as one of the most popular, learned and distinguished members of the Church.—Chicago New World, Nov. 17.

The War is over!
