MEWS FROM IRELAND.

Dublin. The West-British clique in Sackville-street, Dublin, which is trying its utmost to prevent the street from being renamed O'Comell street, has just taken another people's wishes. On August 10, the Lord Mayor and several other members of the Corporation were served with special write, commanding shem, their agents, workmen and several other members of $1,000, to desist in carrying into effect any of the resolutions or reports in refer-medeted or disobayed the defendants will be liable to be arrested under a writ of attachment, and also liable to have their states sequestared for the purpose of compelling them to obey the judgment. Explain law against Irish wishes has now done its work. It now remains to be seen the people's will. le's will.

Wicklow.

Wicklow. Lord Carysfort, in challenging the macy, dreamt of the pleasure of boycotting a charitable bazar by refusing his Hall for the purpose, unless upon impossible conditions. The awakening is humilist-ing, for the people have built a spacious hall for themselves, at Carysfort, and the boycotter may now devote his building to the bats and bill-stickers. In future the noble amadhaun will have no power to deprive the people of Arklow of lectures, concerts, or any other form of instruction and amusement. The people of Arklow, setting under the spirited guidance of Father Dunphy, have brought a lord to his knees. The bazzar will be all the greater success because the people can march into their town hall with proud step and have serect, thinking as little about Carysfort as a fisherman cares for a cod-ling.

Wexford.

Wexford. On Sunday, Aug. 9, the new church of Kilmacoliver, parish of Gap, was con-secrated by the Most Rev. Dr. A. Brown-rigg, Biabop of Ossory. The old church having fallen into decay, this new build-ing was begun in 1882, and was completed a few days ago. The Rev. J. Bronnan, C. C., was indefatigable in his exertions, and collected about £1,350. On Aug. 9, a pilgrimage, under the suplices of the Iriah Historical Society, was made to Vinegar Hill, Enniscorthy, the scene of one of the most gallant struggles of the insurgents of the dark and evil days of '98. The bill, which rises up abruptly from the town, is very steep and rugged, difficult of access, and from its summit a magnificent view is had of the surrounding counties. the surrounding counties.

The last case under the Crimes Act, was that in which the Lord Lieutenant has awarded James O'Donnell, of Dunkerrin, a sum of £40 for personal injurles in-flicted upon him at Dunkerrin, on the night of the 29th of March last, by the discharge of a gun which was fired through the window of the room in which he and his son were sitting. Clare. On August 5, an armed party visited the house of Patrick Whelan, a farmer, hold-ing some twenty acres at Ballyhogan, about four miles from Eonis. They broke in the door, whereupon Whelan got out of bed, and was immediately placed on his knees, and subjected to a beating with a stick about the head and shoulders, after which the sasailants left, firing two or threeshots as they departed. Information having been conveyed to the local consta-bulary, District Inspector Rogers and Ser-geant Cronin proceeded to the scene, but could elicit no more than the attack-ing party, consisting of two men, slightly disguised and carrying a rifle and a revol-ver, snnounced, while belaboring him, "that "he had too much to say." He is unable to give any clue to their identifica-tion, and no arrests have therefore taken place. Tipperary. Tipperary. The Tipperary National League, at a late meeting, discussed the action of Mr. Smith-Barry to his tenants in that district. It appears that at a meeting of the tenan-try, held some time ago, it was decided to demand an abatement of 25 per cent. on the rents due in March: A deputation waited upon Mr. Townsend, the agent, and received an unfavorable answer. Their refusal to pay their rent was fol-lowed by legal proceedings on the part of the landlord. This had the effect of in-ducing a number of the tenants to come in and pay, a proceeding which was sharply criticised. One of the tenants, Mr. O'Brien, who had been served with writs, declared his intention of resisting to the last, and a resolution was unanimously passed in favor of sustaining him in his defence against the landlord. It is some-what preposterous that, in a little town of the size of Ballinrobe, seventeen police-men should be quartered on the inhabit-ant, and it is certainly extraordinary that of the ten Protestants among them, five should be officers, whilst the seven Catho-lies should be officers, whilst the seven Catho-should be officers, while the seven catho-should be officers and the seven catho-and the religious properties of the police force.

derangement of the stomach, but, if neglected, it in time involves the whole frame, embracing the kidneys, liver, pancreas, and, in fact, the entire glandular system, and the afflicted drags out a miserable existence until death gives relief from suffaring. The disease is often mistaken for other complaints; but if the reader will ask himself the following questions, he will be able to detarmine whether he himself is one of the afflicted : —Have I distress, pain, or difficulty in breathing after esting ? Is there a dull, heavy feeling attended by drowniness? Have the eyes a yellow ginge? Does a thick, sidey, mucous gather about the gums and teeth in the mornings, accom-paneled by a disagreeable tasts? Is the ide and back? Is there pains in the ide and back? Is there pains in the ide and back? Is there a fulness about the right side as if the liver were enlarg-ing? To there costivenes? Is there vertige or dizinces when rising suddenly from a horizontal position? Are the secretion from the kidneys scanty and highly coloured, with a deposit after standing? Does food ferment soon after esting, accompanied by flatulence or a belching of gas from the stomach? Is there frequent palitation of the heart? These various symptoms may not be present at one time, but they torment the sufferer in turn as the dreadful disease progresses. If the case be one of long standing, there will be a dry, hacking cough, standed after a time by expecto-ration. In very advanced stages the skin asumes a dirty brownish appearance, and the hands and feet are covered by a cold, sticky perspiration. What is Catarrh !

What is Catarrh ! Catarrh is a dangerous disease which thousands are consciously or uncon-sciously suffering from. It is a muco-purulent discharge caused by the pre-sence of a vegetable parasite in the lin-ing membrane of the nose. The predia-posing causes are a morbid state of the blood, the blighted corpuscle of tuberole, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, toxomos, from the retention of the effete matter of the skin, suppressed perspira-ments and the germination of other poisons in the blood. Irritated by these, the lining membrane of the nose is ever ready for the reception of the parasite, which repidly spreads up the nostrils and down the fauces, or back of the throat, causing ulceration of the throat, causing hoarsenes; usurping the proper struc-ture of the bronchial tubes, ending in pointenest, until a physician of long standing discovered the exact nature of the disease and the only appliance which will permanently destroy the par-asite, no matter how aggravated the case. For showing the courage to defend the pater-mal holding by seizing the bridle of the hunter ridden by Philip of Shandy (or Shandygaff) Hall, the sporting buck struck the youth with his whip and cut him. What a shock it is to the delicate feelings of a daughter when she learns that her own mother has taught her lessons of vice ! It often hap-pens that late in life parents have reason to regret with bitter tears their base neglect of duty, but the evil seed has been nown in the hearts of their children and cannot be uprooted. See to it in time, Catholic parents, that your children are taught by word and example to love vir-tus and to hate vice. Be vigilant in re-grd to their religious instruction. Such has been the increase of budiness in this special line that we found it necessary some time since to establish a branch office in Glagow, Scotland, and we are now engaged manufacturing Pews for new Churches in that country and Ireland.
