

Children's Department.

Chosen Lessons.

BY FRANCES RIDLEY HAVERGAL.

In the way that He shall choose,
He will teach us;
Not a lesson we shall lose,
All shall reach us.

Strange and difficult indeed
We may find it,
But the blessing that we need
Is behind it.

All the lessons He shall send
Are the sweetest,
And His training in the end
Is completest.

Life in North Borneo.

Borneo is a large island far away in the East. It is further off than India, and lies between it and Australia. For many years there have been Missionaries working in a part of it called Sarawak. There they have made many of the wild natives, who are called Dyaks, to believe in God, and become Christians and give up their wicked practices. It is only lately that there has been any Mission work going on in North Borneo, which is hundreds of miles away from Sarawak. There are now a few English people there. Some of them are tobacco planters, and others are looking for precious metals. These English people are now looked after by the Church. It is sad when English people abroad are left without churches and church services, and have no clergymen among them. Those who love God feel very unhappy without the good and holy things they have been used to at home; and those who are disposed to be careless as time goes on. They forget about Sunday, neglect their prayers, and in fact, become almost heathen, so little do they think about God.

Then, besides the English settlers, there are the natives, and many Chinese and Javanese, who come to Borneo to work.

There were no buildings ready for the Mission, and when the wife of the first Missionary went out to him, no house was ready for her. One was built after a little while, but before it was ready this lady had to live for some time in a house which was called "The Barn." In a private letter, which we have seen, she says: "Rain

THE SEMI-TONTINE RETURN PREMIUM PLAN

Provides that should death occur prior to the expiration of the Tontine period, the whole of the premiums that may have been paid will be payable with, and in addition to the face of the policy - thus securing a dividend of 100 per cent. on the premiums paid, should death occur during said period.

THE COMMERCIAL PLAN.

The large number of business and professional men who have taken out large policies on the Company's Commercial Plan, show the demand for reliable life insurance relieved of much of the investment elements which constitutes the over payments of the ordinary plans, is not confined to men of small incomes, but exists among all classes of our people.
