Character.—A man may conceal his name, his age, the circumstances of his life, but not his character. That is his moral atmosphere, and is as inseparable from him as the fragrance of the rose from the rose itself. In the glance of the eye, in the tones of the voice, in the mien and gesture, character discloses itself.

A Good Investment

apart from the protection afforded, is secured under a Participating Policy of the Great-West Life Assurance Company.

One of the Policyholders—a prominent Western Wholesaler—writes:—

"I have just received your cheque in settlement of my Policy and find the result of my investment is that I have received back all the money paid for premiums with compound interest at 3 1/2% or more than a Savings Bank would have allowed, in addition to Insurance for 15 years for the amount of the Policy. Such satisfactory results should convince those taking out Insurance now of the advantage of being able to have their funds invested for them by men with such long and successful experience as the Directors of your Company have had."

High interest earnings—a favorable mortality—and low expenses have made such results possible.

Ask for information, stating age.
